Canada, U.S. and Britain to Confer On Atomic Energy

Attlee and Truman Make Announcement—Meeting Will Open About November 11

LONDON, Oct. 30 (CP).—Great Britain, the United States and Canada, creators of the atomic bomb, will meet in Washington next month to discuss the future of atomic energy.

Prime Minister Attlee, speaking in the House of Commons at the time a similar announcement was being issued by the White House in Washington, said he and Prime Minister Mackenzie King will meet with President Truman to talk of this greatest issue of modern times. The White House said the meeting will open about November 11.

The secret of history's most devastating, explosive is held by all three powers. Only the United States has produced a bomb from it and has facilities for its manufacture.

There was no indication that any of the other allies, including Russia, has been invited to the conference. Of Russian inclusion, Mr. Attlee told the House: "It is better to take these things by stages."

Whether Mr. King, now in the United Kingdom on an informal visit, will travel across the Atlantic with Mr. Attlee could not be learned. It was understood here that his plans remained undecided pending issuance of today's statements. Mr. King, it was said authoritatively, will seek to fit in his plans with those of the President and Mr. Attlee although anxious to have some time in Ottawa before opening there of the forthcoming Dominion-Provincial conference.

He is expected to remain in London for the rest of this week at least, continuing informal chats with Cabinet members and other notables and engaging in an on-the-spot study of Canada's affairs in Europe. His health is termed good and he is said to be enjoying his visit, which now has extended to three weeks.

THE TIMES, London

News and Comment on International Events selected from The Times daily and published in The Daily Colonist by special arrangement with The Vancouver Daily Province.

(Copyright, 1945, by Southam Co.)

LONDON, Oct. 30—Bank of England bill, which received second reading yesterday, is conspicuously a party gesture, says The Times editorially today.

It is impossible, the editorial continues, to look back at the history of the Labor party without being impressed by the part played in the formulation of its doctrine by fears of "financial interests."

These fears are largely outmoded by the extension of Government influence and authority over the whole financial field during the thirties and forties, but they sufficiently explain the determination to bring the bank under public ownership as the first fruit of electoral victory. With this decision, in view of the issues stated at the polls, there can be no quarrel.

But, the editorial continues, the clause giving Government the power to demand information from chartered banks can not be explained.

This clause is defended on the floor of the House and in lobbies as a necessary precaution against eventual challenge of "financial interests."

This is another illustration of defensive mentality which has inspired so many of the Government's actions and pronouncements.

It is symptomatic of the strange lack of self-confidence which still tends to discover conspiracy in every act of the Opposition and the threat of sabotage in every tendency to criticize.

Nothing could be better calculated to bring the prestige of the Government into line with the large and confident expectations expressed by the electorate than the readiness to admit errors of over-anxiety and inexperience in these overtures to the five-year program.

Cardinal Welcomed

QUEBEC, Oct. 30 (CP).—A crowd of several thousand men, women and children today gave a noisy welcome to Cardinal Villeneuve, Archbishop of Quebec, upon his return home from Mexico City, where he attended celebrations in honor of Our Lady of Guadaloupe as papal legate last week.

New Brazil Government Temporary

Elections to Be Held Dec. 2 as Scheduled

RIO DE JANEIRO, Oct. 30 (AP).—Chief Justice Jose Linhares, sworn in today as Brazil's 15th President, said that elections would be held as scheduled, December 2, and "I will govern the country as a jurist" until the elected president takes office.

Getulio Vargas, the "strong man" who ruled Brazil for 15 years, will fly tomorrow to his home in Southern Brazil, Linhares announced. Vargas resigned Monday night after the army, navy and air force withdrew their support. Linhares automatically became President under the 1937 constitution.

Linhares said the change of leaders "was made very easily" and added:

"There were no political prisoners taken, nor is there any thought of taking any."

Immediately after the inaugural ceremonies at Cattete Palace, Linhares appeared on the balcony of the presidential house and received ovations from huge crowds massed outside.

"LET US GET TO WORK"

Acknowledging the cheers Linhares declared:

"Let us get to work."

Then he went indoors.

The Brazilian Foreign Office will inform the other American countries soon of the steps in the transition of authority in Brazil in a bloodless coup in conformance with the law.

Additionally, it was learned, the other American countries will be informed that the new government is interim in character; that it will retire after the newly-elected president takes office and that the army guarantees the temporary character of the present regime.

The winner in the December 2 elections is not expected to take office until late January or early February, since the results will not be made public until some time in January.

ANNOUNCES FORMATION OF NEW CABINET

Linhares announced formation of a new cabinet including General Salvadore Cesar Obino as Minister of War. Cesar Obino, commander of the Rio Grande do Sul military region, replaced General Pedro Aurelio Goes Monteiro as war minister.

Other members of the cabinet are:

Pedro Lean Velloso, Foreign Minister; Air Brigadier Armando Trompowsky, Air Minister; J. Pires do Rio, finance; T. Sampaio Doria, justice; Mauricio Joppert, Minister of Public Works and Communications; Roberto Carneiro Mendonca, labor; Leitao da Cunha, education.

Appeal Started

LONDON, Oct. 30 (CP).—William Joyce, the Brooklyn-born "Lord Haw Haw" of the Berlin radio, appealed today his conviction for high treason, asserting that as an alien he does not owe allegiance to the Crown. Joyce has been sentenced to be hanged. The question of allegiance, main point in the appeal, was being argued when the hearing was adjourned until tomorrow.

H.M.C.S. Ontario on Way Home From Hongkong

THE Ontario, commissioned in Belfast, has left Hongkong on her way to Vancouver, but is not believed to be carrying any repatriates. The ship is due to reach Vancouver towards the end of November.

Senior Royal Canadian Navy warship in the Pacific, the cruiser is under the command of Capt. Harold T. W. Grant, D.S.O., R.C.N., Halifax. The cruiser reached the Far Eastern theatre when the Japanese suddenly surrendered. Since the middle of September her crewmen have been helping to maintain order in Hongkong and Kowloon. On one occasion Ontario was sent through a raging typhoon to rescue a disabled freighter.

Here are the men who keep Ontario shipshape. Front row, left to right: J. McInnis, painter 3rd class, Edinburgh, Scotland; A. March, chief shipwright, Victoria; J. MacFie, commissioned shipwright, North Vancouver; L. F. Robson, shipwright 1st class, Toronto. Middle row, left to right: G. Watson, shipwright 3rd class, Victoria; A. Therrin, shipwright 3rd class, Cornwall, Ont.; A. P. Graham, shipwright 4th class, Halifax; L. Glare, shipwright 4th class, Revelstoke; D. Hamilton, plumber 3rd class, Toronto; and H. Truman Announces Pay Boosts To Be Permitted in Industries

Declares Collective Bargaining Must Be Adopted as Mature Way of Doing Business

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30 (AP).—President Truman tonight liberalized his administration wage-price policy in an order which he said would permit business as a whole to grant increases in wages without requiring price increases.

At the same time, he told the United States in a long-awaited broadcast that "labor has a stern responsibility to see that demands for wage increases are reasonable." The C.B.C. carried the speech to Canadian listeners.

The President's ruling was disclosed as a modification of his August 18 executive order under which wage increases which did not affect the price structure got his backing.

Without mentioning any percentage of wage increases, the President issued simultaneously an executive order authorizing Stabilization Administrator John C. Collet to approve wage increases under three classifications in which the War Labor Board has found increases necessary to correct "maladjustment" or "inequity."

This would permit raises:

1. Where the percentage increase in average straight time hourly earnings since January, 1941, has not equaled the increase in the cost of living between January, 1941, and September, 1945.

2. Where necessary to correct inequities in wage rates among plants in the same industry or locality, "with due regard to normal competitive relationships."

3. Where necessary to insure full production in an industry designated by the stabilization director as essential to reconversion "and in which existing wage rates or salaries are inadequate to the recruitment of needed manpower."

The latter classification, some

Say Churchill Will Retire

LONDON, Oct. 31 (Wednesday) (Reuters).—The News Chronicle said today rumors were current that Winston Churchill intends to retire from both the House of Commons and leadership of the Conservative party.

The paper said: "It is believed that Conservatives in the Woodford Division are looking forward for his successor."

Duncan Officer Is At Buckingham To Receive D.S.O.

LONDON, Oct. 30 (CP).—Twenty-two Canadian Army officers appeared at Buckingham Palace today for an investiture. Four were awarded Distinguished Service Orders, including Lt.-Cols. Richard McNaughton Lendrum, Duncan, B.C., and Clinton Argus Richardson, Red Deer, Alta.

Vessels Damaged By South Storm

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30 (AP).—More than a score of beached and damaged small craft were reported on Northern California shores today after the first Fall storm subsided and moved inland.

Five traffic accident deaths were attributed to storm conditions.

Among the beached boats were the 100-foot salvage ship H. M. Adams, swept onto the rocks at Cambria Pines near San Luis Obispo. Two crewmen swam to shore through the raging surf and two others were removed by breeches buoy.

Six navy landing craft were among a dozen beached ships at Santa Cruz. At Princeton, north of Half Moon Bay, a coast guard patrol boat, a navy crash boat and ten other vessels were blown ashore.

Police to Ensure Quiet Hallowe'en

All motorized equipment and available men will be on duty tonight to ensure that Victoria's children will have an enjoyable Hallowe'en without making nuisances of themselves, Chief Constable J. A. McLellan said yesterday.

"I would like to appeal to parents to deter children from doing malicious damage," Chief McLellan said. "There will be plenty of fun at school entertainments and other functions planned for the children on Hallowe'en."

Inspector John Blackstock said police will be posted at Victoria West, Oaklands, George Jay, Central Junior High, South Park, Quadra, Burnside and Margaret Jenkins Schools to supervise the grounds and make sure others outside the schools do not disturb the entertainment programs planned.

Hallowe'en this year gives every indication of being quiet. Because of the enthusiastic V-J Day celebrations here, stores in Victoria's Chinatown, traditional source of fireworks, have had "no fireworks" signs posted for the last three or four days.

According to Chinese merchants they dipped deeply into their stocks, much of it part of the last shipment from China eight years ago, to observe V-J Day. Small quantities were secured from the United States but they were sold some time ago.

THOUSANDS IN ONE GRAVE

METZ, France, Oct. 30 (AP).—French authorities uncovered in Lorraine today a mass grave estimated to contain several thousand bodies at the Siheloksa former German camp for Russian prisoners of war. The grave was discovered at Bas St. Jean, once a base camp for the Maginot Line a few miles from the German frontier. It appeared to be the largest such find yet made in France.

Germans Arrested Throughout Japan

YOKOHAMA, Oct. 31 (Wednesday) (AP).—Counter-intelligence officers of the United States Eighth Army have arrested a dozen Nazis and seized more than $500,000 worth of German bullion and securities throughout Nippon.

The arrests were made in a series of quick sorties into residential areas where the Nazis had been under surveillance some time.

Franz Joseph Spahn, who once directed Nazi movements in all of the Far East, was among those jailed. Spahn came to Japan in 1943 after service in South Africa. He was reported to have styled himself the "Super Nazi of East Asia."

No Party Has Majority in Denmark Voting

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 30 (AP).—The Social Democrats won 47 seats in today's national election of a new Lower House of Parliament in which no party emerged with a majority. The Communist party which held only three seats before the war captured 18.

The Social Democratic party—akin to Britain's Labor party—showed a loss of 19 seats from the total of 66 it won in the 1943 elections. There are 148 seats in Parliament.

The Agrarians were second with 38 seats, which represented a gain of seven over the 31 they held in 1943, while the Conservatives, with 26, slipped back five seats. The Dansk Samling (Nationalists) won four seats, the Radicals (Liberals) 13 and the Georgists three.

The Social Democrats and the Agrarians are the only two parties in a position to form a majority coalition, but it was noted that the Agrarians are opposed to the nationalization program advocated by the Socialists.

Nearly 2,000,000 Danes voted in their first election since liberation.

Alberni-West Coast Leading Province in Bond Campaign

Alberni-West Coast leads the province in Victory Loan subscriptions. It not only went over the top yesterday in its drive toward a $625,000 quota, but passed its minimum and continued to climb.

Official figures received at Island headquarters yesterday showed Alberni as having 101.4 per cent of its quota. A later direct report, including figures not yet officially received at headquarters, showed it as reaching 105.26 per cent.

Vancouver Island reached 55.8 per cent of its $13,425,000 objective with $7,501,060 subscribed.

The figures follow:

	Quota	Subscribed	Pct. of Quota
Greater Victoria	$8,400,000	$4,847,700	58.3
Saanich, Esquimalt Rural and Gulf Islands	1,275,000	586,500	46.0
Cowichan-Duncan	1,100,000	512,300	46.6
Courtenay-Comox	750,000	369,750	49.4
Nanaimo	1,075,000	586,700	54.6
Alberni-West Coast	625,000	634,100	101.4
Ladysmith	200,000	164,000	82.0
Totals	$13,425,000	$7,501,050	55.8

Victoria stands third among the larger centres in the province, having 55.3 per cent.

A magnificent run is being made by the armed forces, already standing at 277.87 per cent of quota.

Victoria Lumber Co., Ltd., employees, with canvassing completed at both mill and camp, have beaten their $118,000 minimum objective.

In Victoria the employees of the Island Freight Service, Ltd., have set a leadership pace by going over their objective 300 per cent.

Group payroll firms going over the top yesterday included James Richardson & Sons, Ker & Stephenson, Ltd., and James Maynard, Ltd.

In the payroll class firms beating their quotas were General Warehouse, Ltd., Government Street; Victoria Box & Paper Co., Ltd., Dominion Hotel, Nu-Way Cleaners, Hawkes Bros.' Service Station, Canada Packers, Ltd., Swift Canadian Co., Ltd., Walter Walker & Sons, Ltd., New Method Laundry and Safeway Stores, Ltd.

100,000 Communist Chinese in Offensive To Seize Rail Route

Both Sides in North China Crisis Admit Practically No Hope in Peace Negotiations

CHUNGKING, Oct. 31 (Wednesday) (AP).—A Central Government military dispatch today reported 100,000 Chinese Communist troops attacked Government forces around Chining on the Peiping Suiyuan railroad in the Inner Mongolian Province of Suiyuan.

The dispatch acknowledged that Chining had been captured by the Communists.

The move was interpreted as part of a concerted effort by the Communists to seize control of the entire railroad.

It followed a recent charge by Gen. Fu Tso-Yi, commander of China's 12th war zone, that Communists had assembled more than 100,000 reinforcements for a full-scale invasion of Suiyan.

Communist domination of the Peiping-Suiyan railroad would block any overland movement of Government troops from China proper to Manchuria.

Both sides admitted practically no hope of success in their continuing efforts to reach an accord. The Communists want a political settlement before they negotiate on military questions—in short, before they lay down arms. The Government wants the military question settled first.

Meanwhile, reports circulated that thousands of Central Government troops had been landed at Chinwangtao on the Peiping-Mukden railroad south of the Great Wall.

Official Chinese quarters professed not to have heard of the landings but said they probably had taken place.

Chinwangtao is the port from which coal from the great Kailan mines, northeast of Tientsin, is shipped to Shanghai. Protection of the route from the mines to Chinwangtao is essential for the dispatch of supplies to Shanghai.

If Shanghai was deprived of power and water through a coal shortage civil unrest on a large scale might result.

Gunfire rattled in 11 provinces of disjointed China while Central Government and Communist spokesmen in Chungking conceded that the violence - provoking gap between them seemed almost hopelessly wide.

American marines, "walking a tightrope" to maintain order in some Japanese-surrendered sectors until the Government can assume control, cannot keep it up forever without

Slain While Arranging For Truce

Indian Brigade Chief Killed at Soerabaja

BATAVIA, Oct. 31 (Wednesday) (AP).—Brigadier A. W. F. Mallaby, commander of the 49th Indian Infantry Brigade, the British force occupying Soerabaja, was "foully murdered" last night, Lt.-Gen. Sir Phillip Christison, commander of the Allied forces in the Netherlands East Indies, announced today.

Gen. Christison's announcement said Brig. Mallaby was killed "while arranging details of a cease fire order in company of Indonesian leaders at Soerabaja at 6 p.m. yesterday."

No further details were immediately available.

The cease fire order which finally ended fighting at Soerabaja gave the Indonesian Nationalists a large measure of control of the big Java naval base.

TWO OTHER ALLIED OFFICERS ESCAPE

The news was brought in by two Allied officers who were with Brig. Mallaby at the time and who escaped.

Gen. Christison said he had summoned President Soekarno, of the "Indonesian Republic," to appear at his headquarters this morning.

Asked whether he would hold Soekarno responsible for Brig. Mallaby's death, Gen. Christison said: "Obviously."

Maj.Gen. D. C. Hawthorne entered Nationalist lines late today with President Soekarno of the "Indonesian Republic" and fixed the truce. Soerabaja was reported quiet shortly before midnight, but fighting had continued at some points until 9 p.m., British officers here said.

First reports said Gen. Hawthorne had assured the Nationalists that no Dutch troops would be permitted to land at Soerabaja, but a British Army spokesman here denied this. He also denied that a British frigate had put out to order back two Dutch ships en route to the base.

REGARD TRUCE AS INDONESIAN VICTORY

Some observers here regarded the truce as a victory for the Indonesians, since it was a British order to surrender their arms which provoked the three-day battle during which 20 British Indian troops were killed and 59 were wounded. Indonesian casualties were not announced.

The British spokesman here, however, declared that Gen. Hawthorne was not forced to seek a truce because of the military situation of his forces. Gen. Hawthorne "told the Indonesians what he wanted, and they agreed," the spokesman said, adding that the general had explained he was acting at Soerabaja to protect internees and that "the present nonsense on the part of Indonesians must stop."

Invasion of Japan Slated For Today

TOKIO, Oct. 30 (AP).—Japan today completed the second month of Allied occupation, a bewildered, fourth-rate nation headed toward a new political and social life with pressing daily problems yet unsolved.

The country that would have ruled the Pacific is without military forces after an amazingly swift occupation and demobilization that moves so smoothly it surprised both sides.

Forces gathered to repel an invasion on the homeland, originally scheduled to strike tomorrow, have been dispersed. The economic, political and social life of the country is in the throes of a great change dictated by directives of the Allied Command.

In this first adjustment period have been issued the major directives blueprinting the type of state Japan is expected to become. They have reached into virtually every hamlet and into the Imperial Palace. They have touched the lowliest family as well as the ruling class and the war-making army and navy cliques.

Among the major changes are isolation of Japan economically and diplomatically; breaking down the great family monopolies; dissolution of the "thought police"; seizing of millions of dollars' worth of war loot; suspension of repressive laws; freeing of political prisoners, and proclaiming freedom of speech, political activity and religion.

Latest of these Allied directives that have left the Japanese gasping ordered the monopolies — Matsui, Mitsubishi and others—to divulge all of their war secrets, and directed the arrest of Genki Abe, one of the organizers of the "thought police." Abe has long been a power as a police official.

Meat Plant Conference Breaks Up at 1 A.M.; No Agreement

WINNIPEG, Oct. 31 (Wednesday) (CP).—A conference between officials of the United Packinghouse Workers (C.I.O.) and three big packing companies broke up shortly after 1 o'clock this morning and was scheduled to resume again at 10 a.m.

No statement was issued early today but delegates said the conference "was still alive" and an attempt would be made to reach an agreement on union demands for a five-day, 40-hour week with the same pay they now are getting for a 48-hour week.

When the conference started at 8 o'clock last evening it was hinted that the officials would either come to an agreement or disband the negotiations under way since last Wednesday.

Mr. Justice S. E. Richards, Government appointed mediator in the talks, also said they would attempt to reach an agreement acceptable to both the U.P.W.A. executive and representatives of the Canada Packers, Swift Canadian and Burns & Company.

During the evening they obtained through newspapermen waiting for results of the negotiations The Canadian Press report on President Truman's address outlining his wage-price policy in the United States. The delegates took the report into their closed room in the Manitoba Legislative Building for study.

Damage in Nome Storm May Total $1,000,000

NOME, Alaska, Oct. 30 (AP).—Nome pitched in today to clean up after the damaging storm that hammered seas into the streets yesterday, undermining business buildings, wrecking harbor equipment and ruining Winter supplies.

Merchants counting their losses said the damage may total $1,000,000.

A check at Unalakleet disclosed earlier reports of devastation there were exaggerated and buildings still were standing. There were no casualties. Along the coast, Moses Point was littered with debris and there was some damage from high seas.

The gale ended suddenly during the night when the wind, which had raced along the Bering at velocities of 50 to 80 miles an hour, shifted to the northwest and flattened the sea to a welcome calm.

The city, placed under martial law, began its repair work with the help of the army immediately. Some firms earlier believed hard hit, such as the Nome Grill, proved to have escaped serious damage. The loss to firms on the south side of Front Street, however, ranged downward from the $60,000 estimated lost by owners of the United States Mercantile Company and $50,000 by the Polar Bar.

Loss to the Lincoln Hotel was placed by the management at $30,000. No estimate was obtained on damage to harbor equipment, revetments and military materials.

Quarantine of Camp Removed

Quarantine placed on Macaulay Camp on Monday was lifted at 10 a.m. yesterday when laboratory reports from Vancouver on serum taken from skin lesions of a repatriated prisoner of war suspected of having smallpox proved negative. It was announced by Major J. R. S. Nicol, army liaison officer.

Eleven hundred repatriates are now free to come and go, and visitors will be allowed in the camp with the removal of the quarantine.

According to Dr. R. B. Jenkins, superintendent at the Dominion Quarantine Station, William Head, the man suspected of having smallpox was suffering from an uncommon skin disease known as erythema multiforme, which is not communicable or dangerous. It is a skin disease which closely resembles smallpox in appearance.

Hundreds of telephone calls on Monday night from persons who had entertained the men and feared the reported disease might be communicable, besieged officers at the camp. They were unable to give any definite information until laboratory tests had been made.

Meanwhile, Major Nicol said, the quarantine had enabled the medical staff at the camp to speed up routine medical checks necessary before the repatriates can resume their journey home.

Spectacular Fire

CHICAGO, Oct. 30 (AP).—A spectacular fire swept an abandoned grain elevator tonight, sending up flames seen by airplane pilots 20 miles away, and causing damage estimated by Fire Marshal Michael Corrigan at $125,000.

Home Defence Forces Might Be Used to Replace Men Overseas

OTTAWA, Oct. 30 (CP).—Defence Minister Abbott, replying tonight in the Commons to suggestions that N.R.M.A. troops be used to reinforce the Canadian occupation army of 20,000 in Germany, said the troops represented a potential source of re-[illegible] he could not say at this time whether they would be used.

Mr. Abbott said the method of replacing and relieving men in the occupational force now was being studied and when a decision was reached it would be announced.

The Government did not know how long Canada would be committed to keep an occupational force in Germany. The commitment formally would last until March, 1946, but it was possible it might be extended.

He believed length of the commitment was one of the things Prime Minister Mackenzie King would have discussed with the British Government during his current trip to the United Kingdom. He might also discuss it at the forthcoming meeting with President Truman at Washington.

Mr. Abbott spoke after Lt.-Col Cecil Merritt, V.C. (P.C., Vancouver Burrard), and Flt. Lt. James Sinclair (L., Vancouver North) suggested N.R.M.A. troops be used in the occupational forces.

When the Government knew how long Canada would be required to keep occupational forces in Germany it would be possible to formulate surer plans, he said.

Replying to Colonel Merritt's question of whether the Government looked on the N.R.M.A. troops as [illegible] forces, Mr. Abbott said the troops were potential reserves but he did not know whether they would be used.

Mr. Abbott said a decision on the relief and replacement of occupational forces would have to be made early in the new year at the latest although shipping would prevent any general movement of occupational forces until next April or May.

The occupational force was setting up its own school to train replacements for key men with high point scores. Low point non-volunteers would have to serve.

The Government's intention was that the low point men would not be kept in Germany indefinitely. If the force remained in Germany for any length of time beyond next April or May they would be replaced.

There was no general shipment of replacements from Canada. It was thought unwise to send additional men overseas when there were already so many members of the army still there.

Colonel Merritt urged that the Government declare it considered N.R.M.A. troops and general service personnel in Canada as a single force similar to the Canadian army overseas.

Pacific Star for Men of Hongkong

OTTAWA, Oct. 30 (CP).—Members of the Canadian force at Hongkong will be given the Pacific Star, Defence Minister Abbott said tonight in the Commons.

He was replying to Stanley Knowles (C.C.F., Winnipeg North Centre).

Mr. Abbott said he would inquire as to whether the 1939-45 Star could be given to the Hongkong garrison and to men who went to Kiska in the Aleutian Islands.

Declares Probe Was Restricted

OTTAWA, Oct. 30 (CP).—C. C. Cardoza, an investigator for the Prices Stabilization Corporation, complained his activities had been restricted after he uncovered frauds by firms receiving Government subsidies, it was disclosed today when his letter of resignation was tabled in the Commons.

Mr. Cardoza's letter claimed his activities had recovered about $1,000,000 for the Government and if some frauds had not been stopped "it would have cost the taxpayers further millions."

Chief Investigator T. L. Daniels, accepting Mr. Cardoza's resignation, effective November 17, wrote that unless each Government department restricted the activities of its officers to departmental matters "a state of unutterable chaos would result."

He also replied to charges made by Mr. Cardoza that "it is one thing during the course of investigations to form an impression or suspicion that certain state of affairs exists but it is quite another thing to be able to prove it successfully in a court of law."

The exchange was tabled by State Secretary Martin at the request of Stanley Knowles (C.C.F., Winnipeg North Centre) who today placed questions on the order paper seeking information on the disposition of investigations which he said were carried out after Mr. Cardoza had made reports.

One of Mr. Cardoza's reports was that filthy rags and dump refuse had been used by mattress manufacturers receiving Government subsidies. He also charged leather goods had been upgraded and there were indications of discrimination against Jews by enforcement agencies.

Court of Appeal Victoria Sittings

Argument for the appellant Blue Line was completed by R. D. Harvey, K.C., counsel for the company, at noon yesterday.

H. W. Davey, K.C., counsel for the respondent B.C. Electric Railway Co., Ltd., commenced his argument at the afternoon session. It is contended by the B.C. Electric that there were no grounds for appeal indicated by the Blue Line, and that the decision was purely one of administration, and that the Public Utilities Commission had complete freedom of action in arriving at its decision. Mr. Davey further contended that the commission could go outside the evidence produced at the inquiry to obtain facts upon which it could base its decision.

The appeal will continue today.

Government May Sell Freighters

VANCOUVER, Oct. 30 (CP).—The Vancouver Sun said in a newspage story today that it had learned from sources "in Ottawa" that the entire Park Steamships fleet of 250 Government-built and owned 10,000-ton and 4,700-ton freighters will shortly be offered for sale, chiefly to Canadian shipping companies.

Fifty-five 10,000-ton freighters, of the fleet of 250 ships to be offered for sale, have been operating from the British Columbia coast to all parts of the world.

"Indications are that many, or perhaps all of the British Columbia shipping companies now running these vessels will buy them, provided the price is suitable," The Sun said.

The paper said it had been informed by Munitions Minister C. D. Howe that three of the vessels which were in Britain have been sold to Brazil.

Former Internee Due

News of the safe release of her husband, William A. Scott, from a Shanghai prisoner of war camp, where he was held for nearly four years, has been received by Mrs. Grace E. Scott, proprietress of The Guest House, Oak Bay.

The message, coming via Okinawa, indicated that Mr. Scott, who was with the marine department, Chinese Maritime Customs, Shanghai, will be arriving at San Francisco today aboard the Ss. Lavanca.

He will proceed at once to Victoria, where he will be welcomed by his wife and three children, Val, Pearl and Sylvia, who left Shanghai on October 18, 1940.

Mrs. Scott is well known in Peiping and Shanghai, having lived in China up to 1924.

Servicemen and Veterans

Ex-Servicemen From Other Provinces Seek Homes Here

More than 100 discharged servicemen each day are expressing their intention to settle on Vancouver Island, it was disclosed by the rehabilitation branch of the Department of Veterans' Affairs. Approximately 35 per cent of the men enlisted in other parts of Canada, according to Maj. S. H. Okell, rehabilitation officer. He stated that suitable jobs are becoming more difficult to obtain, and that openings for training in industry are being rapidly filled up.

Confirming the trend of servicemen to settle here, Lt. H. R. Hartie, personnel counsellor at the R.C.N. release centre at H.M.C.S. Naden, stated that an average of 150 discharged men each week were expressing intention to stay here, and approximately 25 per cent of them were from other parts of the Dominion.

Some of the men married while based here, and wanted to stay, while others simply expressed a preference for living here, he explained.

Few discharged men were willing to accept logging and lumbering jobs, the main employment being offered, he said. Many had been separated from their families for some time while on sea duty and wanted to resume normal family life in settled areas.

SEEKS PUBLICATION OF JOB FIGURES

Commenting on the influx to Victoria of discharged men from other areas, and the increasing difficulty of finding suitable jobs, Forrest L. Shaw, president of the Citizens' Rehabilitation Council of Greater Victoria, called for publication of figures on unemployment here.

Only a limited number of jobs were available in Victoria, Mr. Shaw pointed out, and if the true situation were made known it might act as a deterrent for both veterans and former war workers who plan to stay here in the hope that jobs may be forthcoming in the future.

Mr. Shaw said placing of men in logging camps was difficult because of the lack of suitable accommodation for married men. Veterans who had served several years overseas, separated from their families, were showing a natural reluctance to resume the barrack life of logging camps, he claimed.

Solution of the problem, he thought, would be to produce prefabricated houses for family dwellings, which could be moved from place to place as different sites were logged off.

To Take Over At Givenchy

CAPT. C. D. DONALD, R.C.N.

N.O.I.C. of Esquimalt since July 31, who will become officer commanding H.M.C.S. Givenchy tomorrow.

The transfer of Capt. Donald, effective the day R.C.N. headquarters officially return to Esquimalt, is one of several changes to be made at the naval base.

Rear-Admiral Victor G. Brodeur, C.B.E., R.C.N., commanding officer, Pacific Coast, is not expected here until the middle of the month.

Other staff changes at the naval base will be announced shortly by Capt. V. S. Godfrey, R.C.N., chief of staff, Pacific Command, who arrived at Esquimalt on Saturday morning. Matters pertaining to naval policy at the base will also be disclosed.

Assist Veterans

"We are receiving excellent co-operation from employers in placing discharged servicemen," C. A. Mudge, manager, employment service of the National Unemployment Insurance Commission, stated yesterday.

"The percentage of ex-servicemen applying for work is of course rapidly increasing. A year ago it was approximately 30 per cent. Now it is more than 60 per cent," he explained.

Many servicemen preferred to wait for jobs which carried a reasonable guarantee of security and permanency, he added.

May Return to City

FLT. LT. A. A. SOUTHALL

Writing from India to his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. A. Southall, 1321 Government Street, Flt. Lt. A. A. Southall, R.A.F., expressed the hope that he would get his discharge shortly and be on his way home.

Going to England over eight years ago, when he was recommended for enlistment in the R.A.F. by Captain Seymour-Biggs, Flt. Lt. Southall took part in the Battle of Britain and subsequently served in various theatres of the war. He was in India and Burma for some time, and is present O.C. of a mobile signals detachment at Comilla, India.

Having seen the war through from beginning to end, he longs, according to his letters, for a fishing outing on Vancouver Island. On his return here he plans to establish a radio business. While stationed in England he became engaged to Lt. D. M. Thomas, Queen Alexandra Nursing Service, and expects to wed in England on his way to Canada as soon as he can leave the service or get transferred to the R.C.A.F.

Draftees Sent Overseas Numbered 12,527 33,207 Still in Canada on October 15

OTTAWA, Oct. 30 (CP).—Defence Minister Abbott told the Commons tonight 12,527 draftees had been sent overseas up to September 30, while the number in Canada totaled 33,207 at October 15.

Of the 12,527 sent overseas, 4,199 went into Europe up to "V-E" Day, May 8, while another 1,107 crossed the Channel up to September 30.

Some 950 of the overseas draftees converted to general service status, while 67 were killed in action. Those returned to Canada [illegible] overseas at September 30 at 10,693.

Mr. Abbott said the 33,207 N.R.M.A. men in Canada included 23,632 on strength and 9,575 on leave, but did not include deserters.

A return tabled in the Commons, October 4, by State Secretary Martin, disclosed there were 11,145 N.R.M.A. deserters and absentees and 13,416 draft dodgers still at large in Canada at September 1.

Declares Plan For Veterans Not Sufficient

OTTAWA, Oct. 30 (CP).—Canada's plans for re-establishment, are "too few in number and limited in scope to provide opportunities for more than a very small proportion of her veterans," the Royal Commission on Veterans' Qualifications reported yesterday in presenting 82 recommendations to facilitate the serviceman's return to civilian life.

Its 30,000-word report, tabled in the Commons yesterday by Labor Minister Mitchell, maintained that the Federal Government should give "all possible encouragement" to the beginnings the provinces have made.

But there was "a general feeling that the problem of re-establishment is primarily the task of the Dominion Government," a fact that was "conducive to a general lack of initiative and sense of responsibility on the part of provincial governments."

The commission hoped the Dominion-Provincial Conference "will result in a greater assumption of initiative by the provincial governments."

In its brief general recapitulation, it noted, too, "a lack of definite plans for public works throughout the country."

"The municipalities seem to be waiting for guidance or assistance from the provincial governments who, in turn, are waiting for an undertaking by the Federal Government."

Considered one of the commission's most important recommendations was that urging the great need for technical institutes across Canada at a post-secondary school level. They would be "of great assistance to industry in the fields of management and product engineering" and would enable many veterans to complete technical training begun in the forces without too great a lapse of time.

Schools Get Books

With the exception of certain geometery and algebra texts printed in Britain, public schools of British Columbia are now well supplied with their 1945-46 compulsory textbooks, P. G. Barr, officer in charge of the textbooks branch, Department of Education, said yesterday.

The last carload of books, delayed beyond the normal time of arrival by wartime conditions, was received here early in the month, and distribution of the shipment has now been completed. A large proportion went to retailers, and the remainder directly to schools.

serious trouble, one high American army officer at Shanghai asserted today. The Central Government, he declared, must send troops quickly to such potentially explosive spots as the Chinwangtao area of Northwest Hopeh Province.

Central Government troops are rushing into the Inner Mongolian province of Suiyuan, the Chinese press said today, seeking by a show of force to control this scene of recent bie-scale clashes between Government units and the Chinese Communist troops. In Chungking, both sides bargain back and forth without noticeable headway as the struggle for supremacy in North China and Inner Mongolia goes on. Odds just now favor the Government, and one Red spokesman blamed this on American "interference," pointing to the movement of Government forces in American planes as one example.

Peacetime Birthday

CHUNGKING, Oct. 30 (AP).—President Chiang Kai-shek observed his first peacetime birthday today since 1937. He was 59 years old by Chinese reckoning, but only 58 according to Western age computation.

Chiang spent the day quietly with Madame Chiang Kai-shek and a few close friends. He was reported in excellent health.

British Columbia Leading All Provinces in Loan Campaign

OTTAWA, Oct. 30 (CP)—As the accumulating volume of Ninth Victory Loan Sales continued to swell, Loan headquarters tonight announced that British Columbia leads all provinces on the percentage of

On a basis of telegraphic reports reaching headquarters the Pacific Coast province had reached 56.75 per cent of its quota, closely followed by Nova Scotia with 52.86 per cent.

Prince Edward Island reported 49.57, Manitoba, 37.65, Quebec 36.17, and Saskatchewan 27.88.

The latest cumulative total figure in the three-week drive for $1,500,000,000, that for the end of business Monday, was $574,619,000 compared with $500,002,150 at the same stage of the Eighth Loan campaign. Monday's subscriptions totaled $75,433,750, against $67,994,150 the same day in the last loan. Aggregate sales in the general canvass stood at $293,871,900, nearly $40,000,000 more than after the seventh day last time.

The outstanding business investment of the day was announced by Edwin C. McDonald, of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, Ottawa, who disclosed his company's purchase of $30,000,000 worth of bonds.

She Was Mean, Awfully Mean

OLYMPIA, Wash., Oct. 30 (AP). — The Washington State Department of Agriculture is sending one of its inspectors out to a Yakima County farm to learn first hand what happened to a cow. The cow had Bang's disease. It was ticketed for extermination.

Dr. H. A. Trippeer, supervisor of dairy and livestock, wrote the farmer, inquiring "as to the disposition of the animal." The farmer wrote back: "Well, as I remember her disposition she was mean, awfully mean."

Clothes Drive Reaches Quota

MONTREAL, Oct. 30 (CP)—The national clothing collection in Canada has gone over the top, it was announced today by William M. Birks, of Montreal, national chairman of the collection, which was sponsored by the Canadian United Allied Relief Fund on behalf of the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration.

Reports received at headquarters from the 13 central shipping and baling centres showed that more than 10,000,000 pounds of serviceable used clothing had already been received, the announcement said, and there were indications that the total might reach 14,000,000 pounds before the end of the week.

The first shipload of clothing from the Dominion will be on its way to the distressed peoples of Europe within a day or so, as it now is being loaded here. Efforts are being made to speed up the process of baling the clothing so that all of it will reach its destination before Christmas.

Following are the figures of collection from each province: Prince Edward Island, 55,023; Nova Scotia, 493,831; New Brunswick, 348,221; Quebec, 1,600,000; Ontario, 4,157,663; Manitoba, 755,574; Saskatchewan, 392,674; Alberta, 986,724; British Columbia, 1,378,000; Yukon Territory, 10,400. Total, 10,178,120 pounds.

Mrs. A. J. Bewley, head of the clothing collection drive for Greater Victoria, reported last night 106 tons of clothing had been collected in the city and surrounding municipalities. The figure represents 56½ tons from Victoria, 22 tons from Saanich, five and one-half tons from Esquimalt and 25 tons from Oak Bay. Four tons of clothing were also collected at Sidney.

French Expand Indo-China Hold

SAIGON, Indo-China, Oct. 30 (AP)—French Second Armored Division troops linked Monday with sailors from the battleship Richelieu in the area of Gocong, port city south of Saigon, in a new expansion of their hold on Indo-China, a bulletin from the British-French Commission said today.

The Second Armored Division advanced eastward from Mytho for the junction, while other troops from Mytho spread out to Vinh, farther southwest.

The bulletin said French troops captured 50 Tonkinese in operations near the Cholon-Tanan Road, and that mopping up was proceeding in the Mytho area against "bands of looters attempting to press the local population into their service in order to destroy communications and dikes." Impressed civilians are deserting, it added, and repairs are being made immediately.

U.S. Wages

persons thought, might be made applicable to the steel and some building industries.

The President declared American workers "feel a deep concern about full employment legislation" which he recommended and which has been stalemated in Congress.

"The American people are entitled to know now that this Government stands for prosperity and jobs—not depression and relief," he declared.

"Passage of a full employment bill will give the American people this assurance."

The President declared that wage increases are imperative "to cushion the shock to our workers, to sustain adequate purchasing power and to raise the national income."

"I wonder how many of you know that many war workers have already had to take or will soon have to take, a cut in their wartime pay by one-quarter or more," he said.

"If nothing is done to help the workers in this situation, millions of families will have to tighten their belts by several notches."

The President said the United States must "above all else hold the line of prices" in general and told labor it has a "stern responsibility" to see that demands for pay increases are reasonable.

Mr. Truman called for return to "the teamwork which we had during the war," and said:

"Labor and management must adopt collective bargaining as the effective and mature way of doing business . . . as a free people, we must have the good sense to bargain peaceably and sincerely."

He said he believed "industry as a whole can afford substantial wage increases without price increases," but added there were "substantial limits upon the capacity of industry to raise wages" without commensurate climbs in prices.

Hence, said the President, "public opinion will not countenance refusal on the part of either management or labor . . . to arrive at just conclusions . . . there is no room on our economy for unfair dealing or for greedy individuals or groups who want their own way regardless of the cost to others."

Spank Thief Judge Orders

BURNABY, Oct. 30 (CP).—Able Seaman George Reginald Banner, 19, of Winnipeg, was sentenced to two years in penitentiary and five strokes of the paddle by Magistrate G. A. Grant in police court here today.

Banner was convicted several weeks ago on a charge of robbery with violence in connection with the October 4 slugging and robbing of Mrs. Eileen Spackman, Vancouver taxi driver.

The paddle, the weapon of punishment used in Canadian prisons, is a leather strap about three and a half feet long and two inches wide.

Germans Approve British Methods

FRANKFURT, Germany, Oct. 30 (AP).—A United States Army survey said tonight the German people generally approve British occupation measures, but are "doubtful of what they call American inaction and indifference" and bitter toward Russia.

An official statement from Gen. Eisenhower's headquarters said: "The Germans are beginning to shake off their apathy, show more interest in politics and are "becoming alarmed over a possible Communist Germany."

To Seize Nazi Assets Abroad

BERLIN, Oct. 30 (AP).—Four Allied powers occupying Germany, seeking to gain control of German assets abroad—estimated to be worth possibly $1,000,000,000—signed a law today vesting them in the Allied Control Council.

The measure in effect would demand recognition of the control council by neutral powers as the "Government of Germany" and therefore legally entitled to marshal German external assets in its own name.

Refused Admitttance

VANCOUVER, Oct. 30 (CP).—Harold Pritchett, president of the British Columbia District No. 1 International Woodworkers of America (C.I.O.), and two other union officials, Ernie Daiskog and John McCuish, today were refused permission by United States immigration authorities to enter the United States.

The men had planned to attend the I.W.A. international convention, Novmeber 13, in Eugene, Ore. This is the fifth time United States immigration authorities have barred Mr. Pritchett.

Pritchett said that United States immigration officials accused him of being a member of an "organization that believes in the overthrow of the Government by force and violence."

Spencer's Remnants

Sixteen new members were admitted to Spencer's Remnants of Victoria at the monthly meeting in Spencer's dining-room on Monday, bringing the total membership to 78. A further increase is expected as more Spencer's staff members return from the services, and plans for a women's division are under way.

Quarantine restrictions prevented arrival of 50 repatriated prisoners of war who were to have been entertained.

"This unique organization was created to retain and foster the spirit of comradeship that existed between servicemen during the Great War. The scope has been enlarged to include veterans of the present war, but with the same object in view," it was pointed out at the meeting.

Conferring on Wage Demand

WINNIPEG, Oct. 30 (CP).—Officials of the United Packinghouse Workers of America (C.I.O.) and the three big packing companies were locked in a secret session tonight in attempts to clean up negotiations for a five-day 40-hour week for about 12,000 production employees across Canada.

It was reported here today that the conferences which started last Wednesday would not last another day even if no agreement is reached. This was hinted after employees of packing plants in Vancouver voiced disapproval over the length of time taken up by discussions.

In a telegram to Fred Dowling, Canadian director of the U.P.W.A., members of the local union in the west coast city said they were dissatisfied "with the delay" and there was unrest among the workers.

Mr. Justice S. E. Richards, Government-appointed mediator in negotiations, said earlier today that the conference would end today and tonight's session would be prolonged until some mutualy acceptable agreement is reached.

Workers in 19 Canadian plants operated by Burns & Company, Swift Canadian and Canada Packers already have given their executive authority to call a strike vote if negotiations fail to provide master agreement including shorter working week. This would mean a 30 per cent increase in wages.

Union officials stated some time ago that a strike is a foregone conclusion if the companies refuse their demands.

Meanwhile, reports from Vancouver last night said that union members already were organizing strike machinery.

Nine New Members At 25-Year Club

Nine new members of Spencer's Twenty-Five Year Club, who attained their 25th year of service, were each presented with a gold pin and a $100 Victory Bond at the club's annual banquet in the store dining-room last night.

They were C. Ward, J. A. Thorne, Miss Dorothy Hearn, Miss Doris Holmes, Miss Ethel Olive, Mrs. E. Clarke, J. V. Barnes, Miss Norma Richards and Miss E. Venn.

Cecil Heaton, master of ceremonies, called on J. W. Spencer to welcome the new members. After dinner, members enjoyed a concert in the tea lounge, arranged by Mr. Heaton, in which the following took part: Alfred Adams, comedian; Miss Grace Adams, soprano; Arthur Stringer, baritone, and Douglas Park, comedy song. Bingo was played.

Miners Accept New Contract

GLACE BAY, N.S., Oct. 30 (CP).—Members of District 26 of the United Mine Workers of America (C.C.L.) have today voted almost five to one in favor of accepting the National War Labor Board's recommendations for renewal of a wage contract. Twenty-eight of 30 locals give 6,356 in favor of accepting the board's decision with 1,447 against.

It has been decided to extend the present contract tomorrow for another 30 days to allow time to complete details of the new agreement. The contract was originally due to terminate February 1, but a series of extensions were introduced to allow time for negotiations between the operators and the union.

Acceptance of the board's recommendations by the Maritime coal miners in today's vote will result in the drawing up of a two-year contract retroactive to February 1, 1945, and continuing to January 31, 1947. It will provide the men with a wage increase of 17 cents per man per shift and two weeks' holidays with pay instead of one, the extra week's holidays to be taken during the Christmas-New Year's period.

Japan to Study Causes of Defeat

TOKIO, Oct. 31 (Wednesday) (AP).—The Japanese Cabinet will create an investigating body to study the causes of the country's defeat, the newspaper Asahi said today.

"Clarification of the causes of defeat and the truth about defeat in war is an important prerequisite for the prevention of a repetition of the same blunders and for construction of a lasting peaceful country," the newspaper said.

"Questions to be probed not only include the matter of why Japan was defeated, but why the war started," Asahi stated.

Agreement on Control Near

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30 (AP).—The United States and Russia were believed near agreement tonight on a plan to create a four-power council for Japan which would not abridge the supreme authority of General MacArthur.

[illegible] their Government would accept such a council in return for Russia's participation in the Allied Far Eastern Advisory Commission which met for the first time in Washington today without a Soviet representative.

The commission was established to give advice on the governing of Japan.

Russia long has contended that the four-power council—composed of British, United States, Russian and Chinese representatives—should be established in Tokio in advance of the Washington Advisory Commission. The commission adjourned today for a week with the hope that Russia would be on hand for the second meeting.

American officials, who asked not to be identified, said the United States, Britain and China had been "doing everything possible" to get Russia to "sit in on the Japanese situation."

They acknowledged that without Russian participation the advisory commission would be a failure. This was in contrast to previous contentions of State Secretary Byrnes that the commission would go ahead with its work with or without a Russian representative.

Discuss Union of Greater Victoria

The question of appointing a commission to investigate possible amalgamation of the three Greater Victoria municipalities with the city was informally discussed at a dinner meeting of Victoria, Oak Bay, Esquimalt and Saanich representatives at Union Club last night.

"Representatives felt that it was inadvisable to give this matter publicity until it has been considered by the respective councils," said Alderman B. J. Gadsden, chairman, after the meeting.

Alderman Gadsden presided in his capacity of chairman of Victoria's business, trade, re-establishment and inter-municipal committee, to which amalgamation proposals were referred by the City Council after a meeting last month between representatives of the Greater Victoria Amalgamation Committee and B. C. Bracewell, deputy minister of municipal affairs.

Among those present at last night's meeting were Mayor Percy E. George, Alderman Gadsden, Alderman H. M. Diggon and Alderman W. H. Davies, Victoria; Councillor W. B. White, Saanich; Reeve Thomas Hadfield and Councillor J. A. Ellis, Esquimalt; Reeve W. L. Woodhouse and Councillor Walter Walker, Oak Bay.

Troopships Delayed

SEATTLE, Oct. 30 (AP).—A gale off the Pacific Coast delayed or diverted troopships due here today, the United States Navy reported. The General Brewster and General Weigel were reported diverted to San Francisco.

The Brewster is carrying 18 Canadian Army personnel who went to Manila to arrange transportation of Canadians released from Japanese prison camps.

FINISH THE JOB

So long as the fighting was on
The need for all-out maximum war effort
Was plain to everyone.

But now that the danger and the tension has relaxed
We must resist the temptation to "let down".
We must keep faith. Our war job is not yet done.

We must finish the job.

Powers Must Agree

Word that there may be a meeting of representative leaders of Great Britain, the United States and Russia next month to discuss the situation created by the atomic energy bomb will be welcomed. If the conference is held it may do much good, for it is obvious that there is little real agreement now. Also, it would be idle for the "Big Three," the "Big Four" or the "Big Five" to attend the United Nations' Conference at London on December 4 until they are able to give an united lead to the war-weary world.

Meanwhile, the United States seems to hold contrary opinions on the matter. One is that advanced by the scientists who helped in the making of the first atomic energy bomb. They say that the secret should be handed in trust to an international commission, under the United Nations Organization; and so detached from any single nation under the sun. The contrary view, that which seems to be held more closely at Washington, is that a secret is a secret, and must be kept to the limited circle where it now rests. The latter course is betting against time, a risky proceeding at best.

Whether the stumbling block is the secret, or sheer obstinacy on national aims and desires, there is something preventing full concord in the world. Until it is removed, the serious purposes for which the United Nations Assembly will meet can hardly be carried out. The great powers of the world must agree in so far as world peace and security are concerned. Only so can they have any valid authority, short of their individual armed might. A fresh race for armaments would be a grim admission that tens of millions of brave men laid down their lives in this war in vain. It must not come to that!

Scottish Homecoming

The 3rd Canadian Division has begun the long journey back to Canada, and Victoria's own Canadian Scottish battalion will soon be home. On the day the battalion arrives, sometime late next month, the people of this community will have the opportunity of showing their appreciation of the valor, not only of the Scottish, but of all the thousands of fighting men from this area who answered the call to arms.

Under the point system, many hundreds of local servicemen have already come back individually, thus precluding the community welcome that is still their due. The return of the Scottish has been set as an occasion for tribute to be paid to all Victoria sailors, soldiers and airmen, those still in uniform and those who have been discharged. Ottawa nodded badly in not arranging that more local units were returned here in a body. The Princess Pats, for example, with their long prewar association with this city, should have come home to Victoria together, so that their great war record could fittingly have been recognized.

Victorians will be glad to see the Scottish home. Part of the woof and warp of this community, they have been away more than five years. They carried with them the hearts of all as they stormed the Normandy beaches and fought their way through into Germany. The measure of their achievement is found in the battalion's casualty list. More than 1,400 dead, wounded and missing was the toll paid in eleven straight months of bitter fighting from "D" Day to "V-E" Day. In those historical months they did not take a backward step, captured every objective assigned to them and others besides, and established a reputation second to none in the Canadian Army. Victoria will greet them proudly as they step off the boat. Theirs was a great task, and it was grandly done.

The Income Tax

It has long been known that two governments cannot occupy the same tax field conveniently or even equably. That is the position today in the Canadian Provinces in relation to the income tax. As a war measure, the Dominion took it all, rebating to the Provinces an allowance of what they had collected about the year 1941. This agreement was to last for the war and a limited period afterwards, and must by now be coming within sight of its expiration. Hence the Dominion-Provincial conference, now resting in an uneasy state of suspension.

There is no way that British Columbia can surrender its income tax to the Dominion Treasury, and keep it at the same time. The wartime expedient could be excused on the ground of national necessity; but war emergencies do not last forever, and British Columbia has its own revenues to think about in the years to come. Is the Province trying to find in public utilities the revenues it expects to forego in the income tax? It almost seems like it. But if that is the position, the public should be told. A government monopoly of light and power, which drives nine out of every ten wheels in British Columbia, might not suit the people any better. In our opinion, it would not.

The plain fact is that since the nine Provincial leaders returned from their conference at Ottawa no very clear word has been spoken as to what it was that Mr. Mackenzie King really proposed there. Is the Dominion asking for the income and corporation taxes outright? What will the Provinces say? What will British Columbia respond? Surely this is a matter that cannot be settled by any lone committee of experts. One day, sooner or later, the activating part of any such change must be placed before the people or their representatives in the Legislature.

All during the war British Columbia has watched hundreds of millions of dollars cross the Rocky Mountains to Ottawa, in a tide which this Province could not support in peace if it is to pay bills on its own account.

British Columbia revenues, normally around $30,000,000 per annum, do not permit of $10,000,000 yearly outlays from income on the acquisition of public utilities, or for any other purpose. If that course is to be followed, it will mean large public loans, and a direct and immediate increase in the public debt of this Province. About thirty cents on the British Columbia tax dollar go for debt services now. That is a fairly steep assessment.

In short, as we see it, British Columbia has no funds with which to usher in an age of magnificence, and may have to work hard to retain what revenues it has in the years to come. Where are these revenues to come from if the chief source, the income tax, is ceded outright to Ottawa, or if indeed it remains pegged?

Victoria 'Teen Canteen

One of the most practical conversions from war to peace we have heard of to date is the outgrowth of the Victoria 'Teen Canteen from similar services that were carried on at full tide for the men and women in the armed forces in this area. Sponsored by the Victoria Council of Social Agencies, the Victoria 'Teen Canteen will open on Saturday in Fort Street premises formerly the home of the Hostess Club. We predict for it a long and worthwhile run.

The idea behind the Victoria 'Teen Canteen is to establish some recognized place of amusement and recreation for youth in this community, where their special needs will be met. Boys and girls from thirteen to nineteen are within the groups it is designed to help, and through the medium of natural, healthy and wholesome amusement. The canteen will operate on some afternoons and some evenings, with an orchestra in attendance at the Saturday evening rallies.

There is a real need for such an undertaking in Greater Victoria. One imagines that behind this effort will fall in the united help of the community. Looking to the future, this is just the type of thing that should become part of the Community Chest, because the whole community stands to benefit. Under existing auspices, and with the kindly feelings which prompted the idea, the 'Teen Canteen will be well run. If the undertaking is as popular as we feel that it will be, this may become a permanent attraction in the community. It is badly needed.

Seen in Passing

The future grows out of the present, inescapably. The savings that are not made today will support no one in the future. The bonds that are not bought will create no nest egg. What is spent now is gone, but what is saved will be in hand for the future. Over the course of a lifetime it is the savings that count. Mr. Micawber in his celebrated advice to David Copperfield was never closer to the truth, and he spoke from unhappy experience. This is not an easy world in which to sit and wait for something to turn up. Buy Victory bonds today.

If the Greater Victoria communities do not amalgamate within the course of the next 24 months they will stultify that growth and progress which together they could have in the expanding opportunities of the future. They will deal single-handedly with governments which will not listen. They will continue following four separate paths to the same end. Crime, fire, disease and inadequacy will be given feeble pushes, but not a body blow. The much that could be done in common will be left undone, and this in an area four miles by seven.

From "The Cane-Bottom'd Chair"

In tatter'd old slippers that toast at the bars,
And a ragged old jacket perfumed with cigars,
Away from the world and its toils and its cares,
I've a snug little kingdom up four pair of stairs.

To mount to this realm is a toil, to be sure,
But the fire there is bright and the air rather pure;
And the view I behold on a sunshiny day
Is grand through the chimney-pots over the way.

This snug little chamber is cramm'd in all nooks
With worthless old knicknacks and silly old books,
And foolish old odds and foolish old ends,
Crack'd bargains from brokers, cheap keepsakes from friends.

Old armour, prints, pictures, pipes, china (all crack'd),
Old rickety tables, and chairs broken-back'd;
A twopenny treasury, wondrous to see;
What matter? 'tis pleasant to you, friend, and me.

The Third Column

THE LAW SUPPOSES

"If the law supposes that," said Mr. Bumble, whose experience was better than his grammar, "the law is a ass—a idiot."

Mr. Bumble, of course, was not condemning the law holus bolus. He was, as Dickensians well know, merely venting his displeasure that the law should suppose his wife acted under his instructions.

In so doing, however, he put his finger on something that subsequent generations have noted with surprise, and sometimes even with discomfiture—namely, the law's liking for supposition.

"It was said of Blackstone, the great English jurist, that it was he who first gave to the law the air of a science. Many a layman, enmeshed in the ramifications of legal technicalities, must regret that he ever lived.

Not that the ordinary man objects to science. Real science he can take or leave alone. But not the law. Whether he likes it or not the law abides with him always.

He may not subscribe entirely to the viewpoint of the contemporary of Blackstone who said that "the law is a sort of hocus-pocus science," but he must sometimes have his doubts.

IGNORANCE NOT BLISS

Take this predilection the law has for supposing things. It supposes, for instance, that everyone knows the law. Ignorance may be bliss, but certainly not in a courtroom. There it is taken for granted that the plaintiff, or the defendant, knows all about the law. Ignorance is regarded as no excuse. This bland assumption must at least save the magistrates many a headache.

There was another great English jurist who said that "reason is the life of the law." It might have been in his day, but one does not indict the whole legal system to wonder if nowadays that statement doesn't seem a bit unreasonable.

How could the head of one small layman encompass the whole majesty of the law, with all its interminable permutations? Even the devotees of this science, "hocus pocus" or not, don't always know the law—to begin with, anyway.

When you go to your lawyer to seek advice he doesn't have all the answers on the tip of his tongue. Ten to one he has to delve deeply into his voluminous references, including perhaps the aforesaid Blackstone. And no shame to him either.

TAKING A CHANCE

And if you are unlucky enough to be hailed into court, the chances are the judge doesn't know the answer either, at least not until he has had time to study those musty-looking tomes that abound in law chambers. And that sometimes takes days, even weeks.

It is no wonder, then, that the poor layman, bedevilled as he is with the knowledge that ignorance will not be considered an excuse, is forced to throw up the sponge and take a chance that his daily peregrinations won't get him into trouble.

He is taking a big chance, too. We live in such a complex age that do's and don'ts galore lurk round every corner. Ordinances, regulations and statutes pour out of official channels in such an overwhelming stream that no one, not even Solomon with his legendary supernal wisdom, could navigate it safely. A man can be breaking a dozen laws a day and be blissfully unaware of it.

What, then, can be done about it? That's a poser, almost as big a one as mastery of the legal science itself. This column doesn't know the answer; but perhaps the law could cease supposing quite so much.

REGRETS THE PENALTY

Aware of its frailty in this regard, this may be why the law, in toto not a bad thing after all, sometimes concedes that its dispensers do not always dispense justice.

There have been occasions, numerous enough to justify the point but not too frequent to besmirch the processes of justice, when a judge has regretted the penalty he has had to impose on some unfortunate culprit. The law prescribed a specific sentence, he would say, and he was powerless to lessen its severity.

By implication at least, this is to admit that at times law and justice are not necessarily synonymous. Probably we have no right to expect them to be. The law must be served, even if a few folks suffer in the serving, or else we will all suffer.

But could the judge not be called something other than "Mr. Justice?"

Capital Shortage Hampers British Air Plans

By E. C. SHEPHERD
North American Newspaper Alliance

LONDON, Oct 30—(By Cable).—All Britain's plans for commercial air transport depend on accelerating the production of British aircraft. The establishment of British air services would probably influence the question of the economic regulation of international air services—a question on which Britain and the United States disagreed so deeply at Chicago last year.

Britain, even if she were not embarrassed by the lack of dollar credits, obviously could not solve her aircraft shortages by equipping her air lines with American aircraft, which would weaken the aircraft industry on which America must rely for re-equipping her air force with a new breed of aircraft and for a big output if war occurs again. The United States, therefore, cannot relieve Britain's difficulties however much her commentators may believe Britain's economic policy in international aviation is solely the product of her unpreparedness for competition on the air routes.

What attitude the British Labor Government will take on the subject of economic regulation has not been revealed. But the Government evidently is aware that the main obstacle to the opening of British air services is the lack of aircraft, and it knows of the factors impending the rapid flow of aircraft from the production lines. Those factors will be overcome. They can be traced to the complete absorption of Britain in the air. Civil aircraft cannot be turned out at the same rate as that at which bombers of similar categories were turned out six months ago, owing to the price levels of the finished aircraft.

British aircraft will be used on the main line services operated not only by the United Kingdom, but also by Australia, South Africa and India. India and the Dominions would not buy British aircraft if they were much more costly than those offered by other constructors. Cost is determined largely by the ratio between the capital sunk in jigs and tools and the demand for the finished product.

In comparison with the demand for war types, the demand for civil aircraft is small. Probably the greatest number of any particular type which a manufacturer can expect to sell is 500. If compared with the 11,500 Wellington bombers sold during the war, the limit on capital expenditure on the civil type is evident. If rapid production is needed, production lines must be multiplied. If multiplied on a small run, the price of each liner must rise. The operator, therefore, finds himself at a disadvantage throughout the working life of that aircraft.

An alternative would be for aircraft constructors to sell at a loss, and manufacturers have often had to do that to recover markets after an upheaval. British aircraft constructors, despite intense activity during the war, are not well placed for making such a sacrifice. They have been subject to the excess profits tax throughout years of heavy production, and all profits above those based on the 1938 standard have been taken by the state.

Thus whereas one aircraft firm in the United States is reported to have placed $10,000,000 in reserve in one year, British aircraft constructors built up only meager reserves out of profits on the 1938 scale. Bounty from the British aircraft industry to hasten the day when British air lines can be equipped with British aircraft cannot therefore be reasonably expected. Yet the aircraft industry is concerned with rapid output to satisfy export orders.

Government subsidy is equally unlikely, for the Government, which could authorize expenditure on additional production lines for war purposes, would not be likely to bear the cost of extra jigs and tools for producing aircraft for private profit in the export market. This is particularly true of the Labor Government, although indirectly it might relieve some of the anxieties of the aircraft industry, so releasing for current speculation some of the small reserves the constructors were disposed to hold for development projects.

There are signs that the British Government will continue to make itself responsible for the construction of prototypes of civil aircraft for production four or five years hence. Now that the size of air liners is increasing, this work is extremely expensive. An unofficial estimate of the cost of building the Bristol Company's "110" Liner is put at fully $2,400,000. That expenditure falls on the State.

Little as constructors may like having development policies prescribed for them by the Government, and much as they may fear the consequent standardization of aircraft types, they would be relieved at the possibility that they will not have to sink such large sums in this form of speculation. Some of the capital intended for development will probably be available for improved production as soon as an assurance of the Government's policy is forthcoming.

The time used is Pacific standard for the 120th Meridian West. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish high water from low water. Where blanks occur in the table, the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

To find the depth of water on the sill of the Esquimalt Drydock at any time, add 25.8 feet to the height of high water as above given.

Observation Car

By G.B.

A local sports scribe knows what it is to have a brush with the law. Early Monday morning he happened to be in the vicinity of an Oak Bay store shortly after a burglary had been committed. Vigilant constables immediately ordered him to stop his car and answer a few pointed questions. All ended well when he produced sufficient identification cards to convince even the most skeptical officer . . . Another newspaperman found himself in the "doghouse," or rather the "cathouse," as the result of an early morning foray on the refrigerator. At 3 a.m. he felt pangs of hunger caused by an extremely light dinner, so he hacked off enough pork from the roast to make a regular Dagwood sandwich. Unfortunately he forgot to shut the refrigerator door. Later on at lunchtime the rest of the family were horrified to see two cats in the back yard tearing away at a noble roast which represented several coupons . . . Firewood sells at prices between $20 and $40 per ton in London, England. Coal fetches $24 per ton . . . The tea subsidy in Australia has cost the public $20,000,000 since March, 1942 . . . September shipments of lumber from British Columbia ports totaled 57,756,583 board feet, more than half of which went to the United Kingdom . . . Butter consumption in Canada was 20,000,000 pounds, compared with production of 30,379,000 pounds. Butter in storage at the end of the month totaled 67,020,463 pounds. Actually there is no butter shortage in the Dominion . . . The 94th anniversary of the founding of Seattle will be celebrated from November 11 to 17.

SUPPORTERS THANKED

Sir,—I would like to take this opportunity through the courtesy of your paper of expressing my thanks to the voters of Saanich for the honor they have done me by re-electing me as member for Saanich in the Provincial Legislature. I also wish to thank most sincerely all those belonging both to the Progressive Conservative and Liberal Parties who worked so hard and co-operated so splendidly during the election campaign. I trust that in the difficult times that lie ahead the Coalition Government will justify the confidence of the electorate as expressed so overwhelmingly at the polls.

WOULD LIKE CAMERA

Sir,—I am a repatriate on my way to England. Since I arrived here last Friday I have had a truly wonderful time, thanks to the generosity of the people here. So much so that I hardly like to ask for more, but there is one thing I badly want and that is a camera to take pictures of this lovely country with. (Incidentally, I intend to return, but that is by the way.) Now I wonder if anyone has an old camera that can be spared? Any old thing that will take photographs would be treasured and appreciated. Perhaps I should explain that due to currency restrictions we are not allowed to draw any of our three and one-half years' back pay and receive very little weekly pay, and you know the price of cameras here.

If you could do something to help me, I should feel even more indebted to the people of Victoria.

No Special Benefits for C.N. Declares Head of Air Lines

OTTAWA, Oct. 30 (CP).—Trans-Canada Air Lines conducts its relations with Canadian National Railways on a purely business basis without any effort to give either of the publicly-owned transportation systems special benefit, H. J. Symington, T.C.A. president, said today before the Commons Railway Committee.

Harry Jackman (P.C., Toronto-Rosedale) raised the question of the advantages or disadvantages of a relationship between a railway and an air line. No direct reference was made to the announced Government policy of divorcing air lines from railways, but Mr. Symington said such relationships were a matter of policy on which he would not comment.

"This line (T.C.A.) will be operated whether or not it is done," he added.

"Then an air line can be efficiently operated with a railway?" Mr. Jackman asked.

"This line can," Mr. Symington replied.

Mr. Jackman questioned Mr. Symington on any capital transactions which might have taken place between the C.N.R. and T.C.A.

"There has been no deal between T.C.A. and the C.N.R. made for the benefit of one or the other," Mr. Symington said.

The T.C.A. president said he expected competition between railways and air lines would become keener as air travel increased. At a meeting of the committee earlier in the day he had predicted air travel in Canada would double during the postwar period.

There was little immediate likelihood of sleeping accommodation being provided for air travelers in Canada. Such accommodation would necessitate fares two-thirds more or double the present rates, and it was believed most travelers would prefer to pay present rates with improved seating accommodation now planned.

The T.C.A. trans-Atlantic service would have an advantage over American trans-Atlantic lines through flights made in an overnight hop.

Discussing air reservations Mr. Symington said he agreed with the views of a number of committee members that it was often difficult to satisfy everyone. One factor which often led to misunderstandings was the priority which T.C.A. is required to give to mail. As a result, particularly when weather conditions necessitated reducing [illegible] with empty seats to accommodate mail.

The time might be reached when all first-class mail would be carried by air, but until then it was doubtful whether planes exclusively for mail would be used.

Mr. Symington informed the committee T.C.A. was converting a number of war transport planes into 21-passenger planes to provide for extended T.C.A. service. Experimental work also was being done on blind landing approaches, but it was not yet determined whether completely blind landings could be achieved.

Trustees to Suggest Censorship of Films

At a meeting of the Southern Vancouver Island School Trustees' Association on Monday at Cobble Hill, a resolution was passed asking for stricter censorship of crime films and magazines because of their effect on young people.

It will be brought forward at the school trustees' convention at Vancouver in December, and copies will be sent to parent-teacher groups.

Trustee F. G. Mulliner, Victoria, sugested that the film censor mark all films unsuitable for children, in order to prohibit attendance of those less than 17 years of age.

Trustee M. P. Paine, Saanich, was chairman.

Caterpillar Trouble

Protection against tent caterpillars will be sought by members of the Metchosin Farmers' Institute, who, at a meeting held recently at Luxton Hall, decided to ask the Provincial Department of Agriculture for a power spray early next year.

It was noted members could obtain stumping powder by application to Canadian Industries, Ltd. Films of farming and orchards of the Okanagan, provided by the Department of Agriculture, were shown.

Acclaimed World's Fastest Plane

LONDON, Oct. 30 (CP).—Britain's standard R.A.F. Vampire, a jet-propelled fighter, has a normal top speed of 540 miles an hour, the highest yet claimed for any operational fighting plane, it was announced here.

This speed can be maintained by a fully equipped and loaded plane for "long periods of level flight," the announcement said, adding that higher speeds have been obtained experimentally.

The twin-tailed Vampire is powered by a De Havilland Goblin turbo-jet engine.

Claims Loggers Need More Food

Shortage of certain foods is hindering the number of men entering the logging industry of Vancouver Island and the Province, it was reported yesterday by D. O. Cameron, manager of Cameron Investment and Securities Co., Ltd.

Mr. Cameron noted the serious shortage of eggs, bacon and baking ingredients. He claimed the condition was "worse now than at any time since the war started."

Admitting that loggers had always been allowed increased food rations, Mr. Cameron added: "They most certainly need it. They do a heavy day's work."

"Our eggs, bacon and shortening are being sent to Europe. I know they need the food over there, but they need lumber, too," he continued.

Mr. Cameron said loggers were accustomed to, and expected, sufficient quantities of eggs and bacon. "They don't seem to understand that we just can't get them," he added.

THRIFTY WEST AFRICANS

LAGOS, Nigeria (CP).—West African soldiers have shown that they can save as well as fight, G.H.Q., West Africa, says accounts of all serving personnel now total more than £1,250,000 ($5,537,500). More than 18,000 soldiers have credit balances of more than £20 ($88.60).

Register Weapons

Fifty souvenir guns brought to Victoria by servicemen have been registered with Provincial Police since publication of the warning that all small firearms must be listed, officials said yesterday.

There have been additional registrations of revolvers owned by civilians who failed to list them during the five-year registration period earlier this year.

At Vancouver, 900 firearms, many of them souvenirs, have been registered this month.

Of some 22,000 guns registered in 1939, only about half were re-registered this year. All small firearms must be registered. A special permit, obtainable only after investigation, is required to carry a concealable weapon.

Decision Made On Arena Roof

Use of a barrel-type concrete roof in the construction of the civic arena was decided yesterday following a lengthy meeting between the local Arena Committee and visiting engineers. Alderman F. A. Willis, chairman, announced.

As a result of the decision, long held in abeyance in order that full discussion of various types of roofs could be held, drawing of plans and specifications can proceed at a greater rate.

Already good progress is being made in this regard, Alderman Willis said.

There is still no indication, however, of the date when construction will begin, he said.

Among those present were Col. A. E. McB. Bell-Irving and Sidney Hogg, of Western Bridge and Steel Fabricators, Ltd., Vancouver, builders of steel truss-type roofs, who were invited to the meeting, and C. T. Hamilton, construction engineer, also of Vancouver.

Representing the city were Mayor Percy E. George, Aldermen Edward Williams, J. A. Worthington, B. J. Gadsden and T. W. Hawkins; P. L. James, Douglas James, F. C. Frame and Hubert Savage, architects; Hugh Francis and C. W. Marshall, representing the Citizens' Committee, and city employees.

Mainland Will Case

VANCOUVER, Oct. 30 (CP).—Judgment was reserved today by Chief Justice W. B. Farris in British Columbia Supreme Court on application of Raymond Saunders, Los Angeles school custodian, for support under the Testators' Family Maintenance Act from the $14,000 estate of his father, Frederick Saunders, who died in Victoria last year.

Chief Justice Farris said the applicant and his father had seen little of each other for many years, with the result that the late Mr. Saunders, in making his will, named as residuary legatee a niece, Nellie Barnett, Victoria, who had taken care of him during his latter illness.

Now What?

He's Back . . .

As a fighting man he did more for us than we can ever hope to repay. Yet all he asks in return is a fair chance to find and fill the right civilian job.

The least we can do is to see that he gets this help . . . see that every young veteran is fitted for the future through the Government's Rehabilitation Program.

Under this program returned men and women are trained, equipped, and directed into farming, factories, business or professions according to their ambition and ability. Some need hospitalization, some pensions—all get gratuities and re-establishment credits.

It's going to take a lot of money to carry to completion such a vital and comprehensive plan. Every Canadian will have to dig deep to raise the sum that's needed.

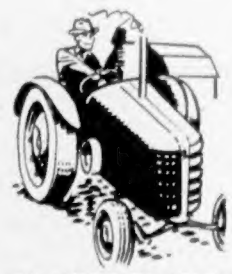
Now that the shooting and shouting are over, let's tell these fellows that we are still interested! Let's come through and make their training for the future our first and most important job!

Get behind the 9th Victory Loan!

HERE'S A YOUNG MECHANIC who learned his trade under Post Discharge Re-Establishment, and is now a skilled operator. The dollars you invest in the 9th Victory Loan will help others to become as happily re-established.

THIS DISABLED LAD is getting the very best of care. Your 9th Victory Loan dollars will make it possible for all such cases to carry on until they can get back on their feet again. Everyone must help. It is the least we can do.

BY SUPPORTING THE 9TH VICTORY LOAN you help young veterans to take up their studies where they left off. Canada recognizes the need to give such returning men and women every opportunity to complete their education.



THIS "VETERAN" FARMER was once a bomb aimer and he planted bombs for victory. What he sows today will add to the growth of Canada. You can help many young farmers like this by backing the 9th Victory Loan.

Weddings

GREAVES—McFARLANE

A pretty evening wedding took place recently at St. James Anglican Church, Saskatoon, Sask., when Marion Eleanor McFarlane, of Victoria, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McFarlane, of Saskatoon, exchanged marriage vows with Mr. Morris Leslie Greaves, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. George Greaves, of Bassano, Alta. Rev. S. H. F. Jarvis officiated. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white silk eyelet embroidery over taffeta. Her silk embroidered confirmation veil cascaded from a Mary Stuart headdress and she carried a bouquet of red roses. The groom's gift of a single strand of pearls completed her costume. Mrs. Lilian Hallam, matron of honor, wore a dress of pink taffeta with contrasting blue flower coronet with matching lace mittens. Miss Margaret Hill in Queen's blue silk and Miss Jean Randall in yellow taffeta, their gowns patterned on similar lines, acted as bridesmaids. They wore coronets of matching flowers and carried pink carnations and fern. Mr. Murray McFarlane, the bride's brother, was best man, and Mr. Bill and John McFarlane acted as ushers. During the signing of the register, Mrs. M. Berns sang "I'll Walk Beside You." A reception was held at the Hotel Bessborough, where the bride's parents assisted in receiving the guests. Rev. S. H. F. Jarvis proposed the toast. For a honeymoon trip to Calgary and Vancouver, the bride wore a forest green topcoat with brown accessories and corsage of gardenias. The young couple will make their home in Victoria temporarily.

Beautiful Choral Service Held in St. Luke's Church

St. Luke's Church, Cedar Hill, was the scene of a pretty wedding Tuesday evening when Miss Ursula Josephine Cole Ley, daughter of Mrs. Francis M. Jupp, "Wildwood," Arbutus Road, and Mr. W. H. C. Ley, exchanged marriage vows with Captain Ernest Morgan Keith MacGregor, M.C., son of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. McGregor, 2417 First Street West, Calgary. Major (Rev.) Roy Biddle, assisted by Rev. F. Pike, officiated at the ceremony, and the service was fully choral. Given in marriage by her godfather, Mr. Patrick F. Mumford, the bride was charming in her wedding gown of white starched lace over taffeta, fashioned with fitted bodice, long full skirt and lily point sleeves. Her veil of embroidered net was held by a cluster of flowers, and she carried a shower bouquet of pink roses and violets. The bride's sister, Miss Nancy Ley, was maid of honor and wore a pale green organdie dress, with yellow pattern, and cap of green feathers. Her bouquet was of pink carnations. Miss Margaret Jupp, the bride's stepsister, in dusty pink organdie, and Miss Betty Dawson, in pale blue sheer, acted as bridesmaids. Both wore matching caps and mittens and carried pink and white mums. The little flower-girl, Ann Mattick, wore a long dress of pale mauve net and chaplet of flowers in her hair. She carried a gold basket filled with flowers. Lieutenant Frederick T. Middleton, of Vancouver, was best man, and Mr. Neal Craig and Mr. Wallace Melville ushered. After the ceremony a reception was held in the Duke of Kent room in the Empress Hotel, where Mrs. F. M. Jupp and Mrs. E. S. MacGregor assisted in receiving.

For the honeymoon trip to Banff, the bride traveled in a brown velvet dress with muskrat-trimmed brown coat and brown accessories, with corsage of white cyclamen. The young couple will reside in Calgary, where the groom is now stationed.

Local Children Helping France

Lists of French children whose parents died in concentration camps or were shot for their resistance to the enemy, were forwarded to the Children of France Society of British Columbia, upon request to the French Embassy in Ottawa.

With each name and address read: "Father shot, mother died in camp," or "Mother shot, father deported." Help was at once forthcoming for nine of these sufferers from Lady Swettenham and her friends: Victoria College, Professor H. Hickman; St. Margaret's School, Mrs. C. T. Teakle, and Oak Bay High School, Miss Margot Gordon.

The society will personally care for ten others. The individual generosity of the school students is a credit to the youth of Victoria, who will write and send parcels to the disinherited French youngsters.

How to make Hallowe'en fun for all

Youngsters traditionally think of Hallowe'en as their very own for fun-making, but it's no surprise to find the adults aiding and abetting them in hilarious pranks. That is why Hallowe'en is an especially good party-night at home where family and guests may participate in games, and—in the spirit of the thing—the simplest repast is regarded as a banquet.

For the young and boisterous, the kitchen is always the favorite spot for Hallowe'en entertaining, because bobbing for apples, drinking water from glasses without touching them, and the usual customary frolic, sometimes become riotous and the kitchen can take it. Besides these games some form of ghost stories and fortune telling should be included.

Food served from the kitchen, even though games are played elsewhere in the house, is a good idea. For your more sedate guests (if there are any at this point!) you might prefer to serve a buffet supper or refreshments in the dining room.

There are no elaborate refreshments required on Hallowe'en, even though the spooky-clad guests have hearty appetites, they don't expect fancy foods. However, weird names add atmosphere and flavor to hearty foods, and many a menu can be concocted for all guests, large or small, from the following suggestions:

MAIN COURSE

RED HOT POKER ROAST—Allow two wieners per person, arranging them side by side, run a string through top and bottom. Broil, tie curved side out, around a mound of potato salad, pressing the wieners into the salad so that it resembles a crown.

SPOOKS SPECIAL: Macaroni salad with diced or shredded Canadian cheese, shredded carrots, pickles and celery. Garnish with ripe olives. GOBLIN'S DELIGHT: Baked beans and brown bread.

BREAD

MUFFINS OF MYSTERY: One-half cup of chopped dates and walnuts added to regular muffin recipe.

TIDBITS

DEMON SQUARES—Gingerbread Squares.
DEVIL'S DUE—Cheese Cubes.
CAT'S EYES—Stuffed Olives.
GHOST CHARMS—Celery Curls.
SATAN'S NIBBLINGS—Spiced or salted nuts.

DESSERTS

PHANTOM FINISH—Doughnuts, soft drinks.
WHEEL OF FATE—Gingerbread with orange icing and balls of orange ice or orange ice cream.

BEVERAGES

WITCHES' BREW—Coffee.

"Pacific Showboat" Brings Music, Songs, and Laughter

Rounds of applause and laughter resounded in the Royal Victoria Theatre Tuesday night as the packed house showed full appreciation of the Royal Navy revue, "Pacific Showboat." The show was "tops" in entertainment with a variety program of dancing, songs and lively repartee.

Repats recently returned from the Orient filled the theatre boxes, and chartered buses took the guests of honor to and from the show.

The revue, produced by Lieut.-Cmdr. Ronnie Hill, R.N.V.R., has a cast of over 20 British radio and stage professionals, with a strong supporting cast, all of whom have seen active service. The company is en route to the Far East, where they will entertain troops of the British Pacific Fleet.

The overture, arranged by Bobbie Pagan, was played by the theatre orchestra of the Royal Naval School of Music, directed by Mr. Edward Talling, L.R.A.M., A.R.C.M., R.M., and was followed by "Pacific Showboat" by Ronnie Hill with the entire cast.

Austen Brett, the talented comedian, did some clever variations on the preceding number, "Tappin' Round the Turret," which featured Jinx Grimmond, Stanley Marshall, Brian Chapman, with smart dancing by Leslie Egglestone. Austen Brett again brought laughter with his lively stories.

Jock Robertson, with a broad Scotch accent, pleased the audience with his humorous stories.

An impressive number was "The Ship's Company," with the speech written by Nicholas Phipps, presented by Rex Baines.

"Sick of the Sun," a little scene on a tropical beach, and "Misses Mess," an imaginary scene aboard ship when the Wrens have taken command, were both good entertainment.

Striking a more serious note was Tschaikovsky's popular Concerto in B Flat, played by Ronald Cook at the piano and the theatre orchestra.

The Seafarers' Concert and Dance Orchestra, directed by Bandmaster Charles Hotham, featured music in the modern manner. Opening with "You Can't Say No to a Soldier, Sailor or a Handsome Marine," with [illegible] the program covered a varied field of popular numbers, including music by George Gershwin, Cole Porter and Victor Herbert. Lieut.-Cmdr. Ronnie Hill made a hit with his singing of "Let's Fall in Love," and in his own number, "Turn Herbert's Face to the Wall." The lovely English ballad "Trees" and "Old Man River," sung by A.B. Wilfred Chumblehulme, were loudly applauded. Young David Woods, 18 years old, who recently joined the naval band, was featured trumpet soloist in the Glen Miller arrangement of "Jingle Bells." Another popular number was Tommie Jones' own arrangement of "Alexander's Ragtime Band."

The revue will be presented at a matinee this afternoon and again in the evening. Another performance will be given Thursday evening.

Legion Entertains

More than 300 liberated prisoners of war were entertained at the hall of Britannia Branch, Canadian Legion, on Sunday night.

Taking part in the three-hour show were: William Farmer, Enid Middleton, W. Chapman, Daphne Archer, Fred Usher, William McGrath, Malvina Manchur, Stanley James, Frank Merryfield, William Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. W. Clarke, Betty Cameron, Agnes Robertson, Jessie Twambley, Ray Gandy and William Anderson. Alfred Worthington was in charge of arrangements. Members of the women's auxiliary served refreshments.

At the Theatres

Ruth Gillette Has Had Many Singing Roles

When "Blossom Time," the celebrated musical play, based upon the life and melodies of Franz Schubert, comes to the Royal Victoria Friday and Saturday, November 9 and 10, the glamorous and temperamental opera singer Bellabruna will be sung by the stunning soprano, Ruth Gillette, and here the movie fans will be treated to something that is looked for in every town.

Ruth Gillette played the part of Lillian Russell in the "Great Ziegfield" and more recently in "Hello, Frisco, Hello," and in "Coney Island," with Betty Grable. She has played the lead in many productions, including "The Merry Widow," "The Chocolate Soldier," "Vagabond King" and "New Moon."

Miss Gillette will always be remembered as a featured soloist on the Shell Show radio program. She is a protege of the late John McCormack, the great tenor.

Other well-known pictures that Miss Gillette appeared in are: "In Old Chicago," "Frontier Marshall," "Wild Gold," "Saratoga," "Sea Wolf," "Dr. Jekyl and Mr. Hyde," and many others.

ATLAS THEATRE He sold his soul for a life of pleasure! Here's a different kind of picture—a grippingly imaginative movie about a man who stayed young forever and a painting that revealed the soul of this man from day to day. It's M.-G.-M.'s screen version of Oscar Wilde's most celebrated novel, "The Picture of Dorian Gray," which will end tonight at the Atlas Theatre, with Hurd Hatfield, George Sanders and Donna Reed in the starring roles.

CADET THEATRE "Frisco Sal," which will end tonight at the Cadet Theatre, is set in the exciting 90s. It recreates in all its colorful boisterousness the rough-and-tumble life that characterized the famous Barbary Coast. Susanna Foster is seen as a New England choir singer who becomes a music hall entertainer to solve the mystery of her brother's disappearance.

CAPITOL THEATRE The plight of a strictly peaceable range-rider who is mistaken for a vicious outlaw and finds himself mixed up with a heap of trouble is entertainingly told in "Along Came Jones," newest R.K.O. Radio release, now at the Capitol Theatre. Gary Cooper and Loretta Young are co-starred.

DOMINION THEATRE Portunio Bononova is seen and heard in the role of Christopher Columbus in 20th Century-Fox's hilariously topsy-turvy musical, "Where Do We Go From Here?" the Technicolor hit starring Fred MacMurray, Joan Leslie and June Haver, now at the Dominion Theatre. Bononova sings with Fred MacMurray, Carlos Ramirez and members of the crew of the Santa Maria.

PLAZA THEATRE According to the experts, the people who make a hobby of the Sir Arthur Conan Doyle detective stories, Basil Rathbone looks more like the original Sherlock Holmes than any other actor who has played the role. Rathbone's latest impersonation of the master sleuth is in Universal's "The Woman in Green," now showing at the Plaza Theatre. Nigel Bruce is co-starred.

RIO THEATRE One of the most successful of the motion picture industry's film series, which includes those like "Blondie," "Cisco Kid" and the "Charlie Chan" dramas, are the East Side Kids adventures. More than 20 have been made thus far, the most recent being "Come Out Fighting," which is now showing at the Rio Theatre.

YORK THEATRE Screen detectives have never been famous for romantic appeal. But in "Laura," the 20th Century-Fox film which will end tonight at the York Theatre, Dana Andrews, in the role of Mark McPherson, not only does the sleuthing, but carries the romantic interest in the film as well. Starred with him are Gene Tierney and Clifton Webb.

SPORTS SLANTS

By SID THOMAS

WEDNESDAY MORNING PROGNOSTICATIONS

Oak Bay High School vs. Naval Cadets—Coach Hugh Farquhar's Oak Bay High School ruggers have really drawn a tough assignment in today's Intermediate League fixture with the Royal Canadian Naval College at Windsor Park. The Oak Bay lads made their season's debut last week by applying an 8-0 whitewashing to Victoria College, but will find the chores a little heavier today. The future naval officers, judging by the display the senior Naval Cadets' team made two weeks ago, will be in the pink of condition for their season's opener today. Our choice in this match will have to be the Naval Cadets. Final score: Naval Cadets 9, Oak Bay High School 6.

* * *

H.M.C.S. Uganda vs. Brentwood Aces—These cage quintettes will appear in the nightcap attraction of tonight's triple program at the Victoria High School gymnasium. H.M.C.S. Uganda, thanks to some smart sniping by Johnny "Baseball" Bayduck, nosed out the Eagles in a photo finish Monday evening, but this one will be a little more difficult. Brentwood Aces, capable of scoring a lot of points, judging by their earlier exhibitions, look good enough from this corner to "submarine" the bluejackets tonight. Take it away Brentwood Aces by approximately 10 points.

* * *

K.V.'s vs. Chinese Students—This promises to be quite a battle between two younger casaba quintettes and from where we sit it looks like a win for the K.V.'s. The Turner-Simpson combination has been responsible for developing a number of winning aggregations and we look for their proteges to wind up on the right end of the scoring tonight. K.V.'s will win here by seven points.

SPORTS OFFICIAL ARRIVES IN CITY

Victoria's sports fraternity received a welcome addition recently with the arrival here of Doug Conrad of Vancouver, former secretary of the Intercity Box Lacrosse League. Mr. Conrad is a gentleman with a lot of experience in the field of athletics, both as a competitor and executive.

In welcoming him to this city we sincerely hope that his vast experience in sports in the metropolitan city of Vancouver will soon be contributed to the general welfare of the sports picture in Victoria.

GATHERED FROM HERE AND THERE

Gordie Perkins, versatile local athlete, will make his 1945-46 soccer debut with Manager "Jock" McColl's V.M.D. footballers this weekend, according to the latest word reaching this department. . . . In preparation for the reopening next Summer of the popular holiday resort and the possible resumption of the annual golf tournament, the popular Jasper Park golf course is undergoing a number of improvements and alterations. An improved drainage system is being installed in the fairways, and at the 17th hole, known as "the pyramid," the bunkers behind the green have been rebuilt and now form an exact reproduction in miniature of the Pyramid Range. . . . Manager "Bob" McInnes, veteran pilot of the J.B.A.A. ruggers, is leaving no step unturned in his plan to mould the Oarsmen into a strong aggregation. Latest addition to his line-up in Doug Peden, former six-day bicycle rider and all-round athlete. . . . John Henry Lewis, colored fisticuffer, who has faded completely from the boxing picture, won the world's light heavyweight championship ten years ago today when he outpointed Bob Olin in a 15-round melee at St. Louis. Olin won the title from Maxie Rosenbloom in November, 1934. . . . And speaking of fighting, Jim Downing, Victoria mat impresario last Summer, is promoting box fights at Salt Lake, Utah, and doing a swell job. As a matter of fact, it would be no surprise to this scribbler if Downing promoted some fight cards here next year in addition to his mat shows. . . . It was exactly 12 years ago last night that Vince Dundee defeated Lou Brouillard for the world's middleweight crown at Boston. Brouillard won the title only two months previously when he stopped Ben Jeby in seven rounds at New York.

Rangers, Hawks Will Meet Tonight

Lester Patrick's Crew to Make Season's Debut at Chicago—Henry Will Play Goal

CHICAGO, Oct. 30 (CP).—New York Rangers arrived here today for their National Hockey League opener against Black Hawks Wednesday night—with the problem of who is their regular goal-tender still unsolved.

Coach Frank Boucher told reporters: "It is such a close thing between "Sugar" Jim Henry and "Chuck" Raynor that in our final exhibition game last Saturday we alternated the pair about four minutes each.

"They are both about on a par as far as Lester Patrick and I can judge and although Henry may start tomorrow night it is because he was our regular goalie before the Canadian Army claimed him."

Ken Macauley guarded the Ranger goal last season.

Boucher plans to use Neil Colville, Murray Patrick, Ott Heller and Bill Moe on defence with Phil Watson, Bryan Hextall, Alex Shibicky; Hank Goldup, Ab Demarco, Grant Warwick; Edgar Laprade, Hal Brown and Alan Kuntz as his three forward lines.

The Hawks are expected to ice approximately the same line-up they used in their first two games—a 5-4 victory over Boston and an 8-4 drubbing at the hands of Montreal.

Elmer Lach Moves Out in Front in N.H.L. Scoring

MONTREAL, Oct. 30 (CP).—Elmer Lach, speedy centre of Montreal Canadiens, who finished the 1944-45 National Hockey League season as top-ranking point-maker today gave indication of his intention to continue in that capacity as he headed the first statistical report issued by the league for the current season. Lach posted a total of 80 points last year, and in his first game counted one goal and three assists for four points.

Five players were grouped behind Lach in second place, Adam Brown, of Detroit Red Wings, and Max Bentley, of Chicago Black Hawks, with three goals each; Toe Blake, of Montreal Canadiens, with two goals and an assist; Don Gallinger, of Boston Bruins, with one goal and two assists, and Alex Kaleta, of Chicago, with three assists.

The first shutout of the season was registered in Detroit Sunday when the Red Wings blanked Bruins, 7-0. This gave Harry Lumley, youthful Detroit netminder, the top ranking among goalkeepers.

The league announced that the weekly statistics this season would show ten-minute misconduct penalties included in the individual total of penalties in minutes, instead of a separate listing as misconduct. These penalties will be shown bracketed after the total. Match penalties will continue to be designated as in the past, and will not be included in the total.

There have been neither match nor misconduct penalties in the first four games of the season.

Uganda to Oppose Brentwood Cagers

FRESH from their thrilling one-point triumph over the Eagles on Monday, H.M.C.S. Uganda senior "B" cage quintette will attempt to make it two in a row at the High School gymnasium this evening when they mix it with the fast-improving Brentwood Aces in the feature game of the regular triple-header. An added attraction will be the appearance of the H.M.C.S. Uganda band, which will entertain during intermissions.

Other games will see the Chinese Students, speedy intermediate "B" club, go out after their second win against the K.V.'s, who bowed to the Eagles in their first game. In the opener at 7 p.m., Bob Whyte's junior Hotshots will again try to make a 30-point handicap stand up against one of the senior clubs when they take on Wally Yeamans' Unitys. Chinese Students and K.V.'s will follow at 8 p.m., with the third game scheduled to get under way at 9 p.m.

Old Country Footballers Favor Strike

MANCHESTER, Eng., Oct. 30 (CP).—Britain's professional soccer players were reported today voting ten to one in favor of going on strike for increased pay.

Balloting began among the players a week ago after the Club Owners' Association rejected demands for a raise in the £8-a-week maximum allowed full - time players. Part-time booters earn half as much and all players are paid only during the league season. The club owners refused to increase wages on the grounds of "inability to pay."

A suggestion by one club official that British football players in uniform—and many still are in the services—could not strike because of army regulations was scoffed at by the secretary of the players' union. The secretary, James Fay, said all contracts between the players and the clubs were canceled in 1939 when the war started.

The War Office confirmed that "soldiers are not allowed to take part in strike activities," but declined to say whether refusal to play soccer for professional clubs could be called a strike.

A possibility of averting the threatened strike was seen in statements by union leaders and club owners that indicated a willingness to negotiate the demands for higher pay.

The manager of one London club whose directors have been considering mediation declared "nobody would lose prestige by negotiation." Sammy Crooks, union chairman, said "the players would be glad to meet in a spirit of reasonableness."

The players are asking that full-time professionals be paid a maximum of £12 (about $53) a week with a minimum of £5 a week. They also seek a maximum of £8 and a minimum of £4 a week for service players and those players engaged in war work.

British Fighter Stops Danny Webb

Al Phillips Registers Sixth-Round Kayo Over Montreal Fisticuffer in London Ring

LONDON, Oct. 30 (Reuters)—Al Phillips of London tonight battered Danny Webb, Montreal negro featherweight, around the ring in the first round of a scheduled eight-round boxing bout and knocked out the Montrealer in the sixth round.

Phillips scored eight knockdowns in the first round. His first punch, a right hook to the head, sent the Canadian army boxer down for a count of two. Another right hook put Webb on the canvas for a seven count. In quick succession he went down for counts of six, two, nine, eight, nine and two.

Webb bored carefully in the second round and appeared to be recovering strength. In the third, the Montrealer's best round, he caught Phillips on the jaw with a well-timed right hook and put the Londoner down for a count of seven.

Phillips returned to the attack in the fourth, putting Webb down for two seconds, and from then on he taught the Montreal fighter a boxing lesson. He scored repeatedly with blows to Webb's face and the Canadian's nose and mouth began to bleed profusely.

The end came in the sixth round when Phillips, after scoring with a series of straight lefts, dropped Webb for the full count with a short right hook.

POTATO SMASHES WINDOW

A potato and a rock were thrown at and struck his house, the potato smashing a front door glass window and the rock glancing off the roof, Len Lee, 1770 Fairfield Road, reported to police yesterday by letter. Mr. Lee said the missiles were apparently thrown from the direction of Robertson Street, nearby, at 7.30 p.m., Monday.

Ches McCance Is Top Scorer

WINNIPEG, Oct. 30 (CP).—A member of two Grey Cup teams and an All-Canadian end, Ches McCance, 200-pound Winnipeg Blue Bomber flying wing, is the team's leading scorer with 43 points in six exhibition games with United States college teams and Regina Roughriders.

McCance, who snags forward passes with uncanny regularity, gathered in aerial efforts for five touchdowns, each worth six points since games were scored under American point rules. In addition he booted ten converts from placement and kicked one field goal.

Halfback Danny Summers was second with 20 points, while his running mates, Bill Boivin and Frank Mathers, now playing with Ottawa, followed with 18 each.

During Bombers' six games, five of them with teams from south of the border, they piled up the impressive total of 254 points while having only 49 scored against them.

They finished with five wins against one loss—their only defeat having been in the first game against Minot (N.D.) State Teachers' College, 19-16.

It's been a long time...

A long time since he said goodbye to his wife and infant son...a long time since he tramped the woods...caught the car at the corner ...was called "Mister".

Canada's youth is coming home.

It will be months—or years—before some are back to normal health. Many will need to take up their studies where they left off. Others are planning to go into business, or learn a trade, or buy a farm, or a home with a garden...

Canada's whole future is bound up with their successful return to civil life. We can help them to carry out their plans. We can help them to make up lost years. We can buy Victory Bonds.

This is our continuing responsibility—our privilege—our debt of honour.

High School Girls Go for That Well-Scrubbed Look

NEW YORK (CP)—Teen-agers have become skin-care fans and reliable grooming lay dumpsite girls are the confusing the American well-scrubbed look.

But while many adolescents have learned the soap and water habit, some ultimate users are more than likely to be the girls who have been using soap and water for years.

Most adolescents can help overcome skin difficulties, or skin annoyances, by remembering on a number of basic rules. It doesn't mean you're to never use soap and water. But along with these ordinary routines, try to also get plenty of outdoor exercise.

Establish proper habits of elimination and lots of fresh fruit and vegetables and drink at least a quart of milk a day. Too many sweets pastries and rich fried foods are bad for beauty.

Strict cleanliness of the skin is important in thwarting blackheads and excessively oily skin. To cleanse your face properly you need hot (not lukewarm) water. Using a clean, rough cloth and a soft, mild soap, massage soap lather into your face.

You may irritate your skin if your soap contains excessive alkali. But you should be able to find a mildly medicated soap that is fragrant and without medicinal odor.

After your soap massage rinse your face several times in cool water. If you have accumulated blackheads or skin blemishes you may need a medicated emollient ointment.

You can use it at bedtime and leave it on all night. If used in the morning, leave it on at least for a few minutes before removing with cleansing tissue.

Ointments such as those used by hospitals containing oxyquinoline and sulphurated petroleum, are often advised by skin specialists for young skins.

However, if your skin does not respond to simple common-sense care within a few weeks, put yourself in the hands of a doctor.

Doctors say that though they get only the most stubborn cases, they are able to effect a cure in more than 80 per cent of those.

Big Transport for Atlantic Service

FARNBOROUGH, Hampshire, England, Oct. 30 (CP).—A four-engined, 12-passenger aircraft with a cruising speed of almost 300 miles an hour will open trans-Atlantic service for Britain.

The 70,000-pound aircraft, which will carry 1,500 pounds of mail in addition to passengers, is known as the Tudor I.

The plane will be used on trans-Atlantic service at least until the end of 1947, when the huge Bristol Brabazon is scheduled to be ready for service.

The Bristol Brabazon, with eight 2,000-horsepower Centaurus engines, is planned to carry from 50 to 80 passengers at a cruising speed of 250 miles an hour.

WIFE DIETS TO WIN BACK BUSY HUSBAND

"You're twelve pounds overweight," condoled the woman who had a double chin of her own, as she scrutinized the scales in the "Second - Blooming - Beauty-Parlor."

The woman, who had just stepped on the scales, looked as if she had been sentenced to life imprisonment. She'd been thinking all along there was something concealed in Bob's manner, the way he wolfed the headlines of the paper at breakfast—the way he dashed to the office forgetting to kiss her good-bye two or three times—the way his thoughts seemed to wander when she chattered along about household affairs at dinner. Today she'd found the reason for all this—she was twelve pounds overweight!

They'd been married ten years. The boy was eight, the girl six. Bob was doing extremely well; everyone regarded them as an ideal couple, but they hadn't observed, as his wife had, that Bob seemed absorbed in something outside the home.

The "little woman" began to diet, and she did it with the thoroughness that she did her Spring house cleaning. Her breakfast was black coffee and a piece of fruit. Luncheon wasn't worth mentioning; dinner was grim. With a set smile she would see Bob and the children eat potatoes, rice and gravy, and on Sundays stuffed chicken and pie while she picked about like the proverbial bird.

Her martyrdom achieved results. Her plump cheeks fell in, eyes had a hollow look, a fine network of wrinkles appeared. She didn't look pretty, but she was losing! Losing! Losing, according to her bathroom scales. Her mother and sisters cautioned her. Wasn't she carrying starvation too far? Everyone but Bob seemed to notice she'd begun to look like a ghost.

Then one evening he came bounding in from the office with a bustle and enthusiasm he hadn't shown in years. "Congratulate me," he said "everything's all set . . . ."

And the "little woman" almost reeled. He was going to tell her, she felt sure, that it had come at last; she'd have to go to Reno to get a divorce and he would agree to a liberal settlement.

"What is it?" she gasped.

"I've been made a junior partner, and I've been so busy I haven't thought of a thing but that set-up. Now we can build our house . . . ."

Gosh, whats the matter with you? You look like a ghost. What's happened?" For the first time he seemed to notice.

Then the "little woman" took refuge in a burst of tears (she was that kind) and sobbed out the whole story that she didn't think he loved her any more, and had begun dieting.

"If you don't quit, I won't love you any more. You look you look, but never mind now—put on your hat, let's go out and celebrate."

Thousands More Troops Out to Load and Unload British Ships

LONDON, Oct. 30 (CP).—The British Government had virtually taken over all of Britain's strikebound ports today, ordering out thousands of additional troops to unload all ships and get the country's export trade moving by loading a number of vessels.

Soldiers had hitherto been used only to unload food ships since the outbreak of the six-week-old stevedores' strike.

The Ministry of War Transport, announcing the Government's decision to use troops for loading ships as well, said the number of soldiers to be used would be increased as necessity indicated. So far 17,500 men have been assigned to take over the gaps left by the walkout of 40,000 dock workers.

The unauthorized strike for a guaranteed $5.50-a-day wage which has tied up almost every port in the United Kingdom became stalemated when strikers refused to negotiate through unions recognized by the Government.

Meanwhile more than 300 loaded ships were tied up in various ports, with more vessels arriving daily.

Food Minister Sir Ben Smith announced today that bread will not be rationed in Britain in the "foreseeable" future despite the dock strike. Miss Ellen Wilkinson, education minister, warned Sunday that unless ships collected grain at St. Lawrence River ports before the Winter freeze, Britain would have to ration bread this Winter. Miss Wilkinson said she was speaking for herself and not on behalf of the Cabinet.

The strike has sharply reduced unloadings of Canadian bacon, it was learned today.

Instead of the 33,000,000 pounds scheduled for October, only 7,000,000 pounds have been shipped due to a shortage of ships as a result of the strike.

Cheese shipments from Canada also have been affected but 87,500,000 pounds of the 125,000,000-pound contract had been shipped to the end of September.

Getting Out of Breath

By Dr. J. B. WARREN

When you find yourself getting out of breath doing some physical work, which formerly did not cause you to get out of breath, it may be due to three causes (1) too much acid food eaten requiring more oxygen to burn it up, (2) one nostril partly or completely closed, and (3) early heart disease.

According to Culbertson - - - -

South's redouble in today's deal was a terrific gamble, but at least it was a well considered one, and it had the unquestionable virtue of being successful!

East, dealer.

The bidding:

East	South	West	North
Pass	1 NT	Double	3 NT
Double	Rdble	Pass	Pass
Pass

West led his fourth highest club. South won, cashed the spade ace, then ran off dummy's seven diamonds. With the redoubled contract already home, and since West had discarded two spades, South now decided to go all out, and instead of taking the spade king and being satisfied with one overtrick, he finessed for the spade queen and garnered 800 extra points.

This was extremely gratifying from the North-South point of view, and it became a great deal more gratifying — psychologically speaking—when analysis disclosed that a heart lead with a club return would have given the defenders no fewer than nine tricks for a 2,200-point penalty! South shuddered just from having it pointed out to him!

It goes without saying that sound bridge does not encompass the possibility of going down 2,200 points, but even at the risk of "sticking out my own neck," I must say that there was considerable logic in South's bold action. He knew, of course, that North's leap to three no trump, right over West's double, could not possibly be "honest"—with a generally good hand, North certainly would have preferred to redouble, or even to pass and "wait"—but the very assurance that North had made that bid on a long minor suit gave South two strong reasons for redoubling. First, he could fill out either clubs or diamonds, and therefore could expect to run North's suit. Second, failure to redouble would very probably send North scurrying to four diamonds or four clubs, whichever it happened to be, and South would not dare go to game.

Finally, there was the reasonable hope that even if the opponents could defeat three no trump, West might not hit the killing lead.

The best plan is to make sure it is not the heart that is affected by consulting your family physician at once.
